We Move

Today we are moving together. The times have forced us to speak out, to act, and to react as one. As college students we look for leaders within the University. Leaders whom we can relate to and confide in. Leaders whose youth and energy, understanding and response make them worth seeking out.

We have two such leaders in the Department of Student Affairs. Young enough to discern our needs, human enough to sympathize with us, and experienced enough to guide us, Mr. Edward Manigan and Mr. William A. Smith move as we do.

For their willingness to listen to us, their ability to work for change and their unceasing efforts at keeping pace with us, we dedicate this book to them.

R.O.T.C. REFERENDUM

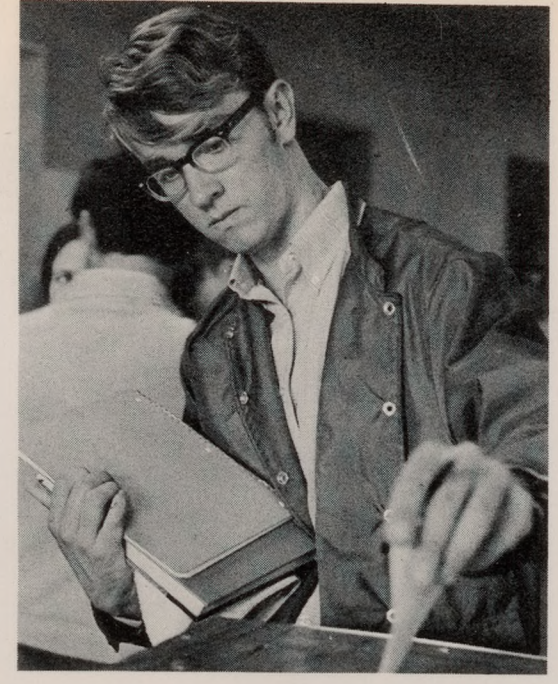

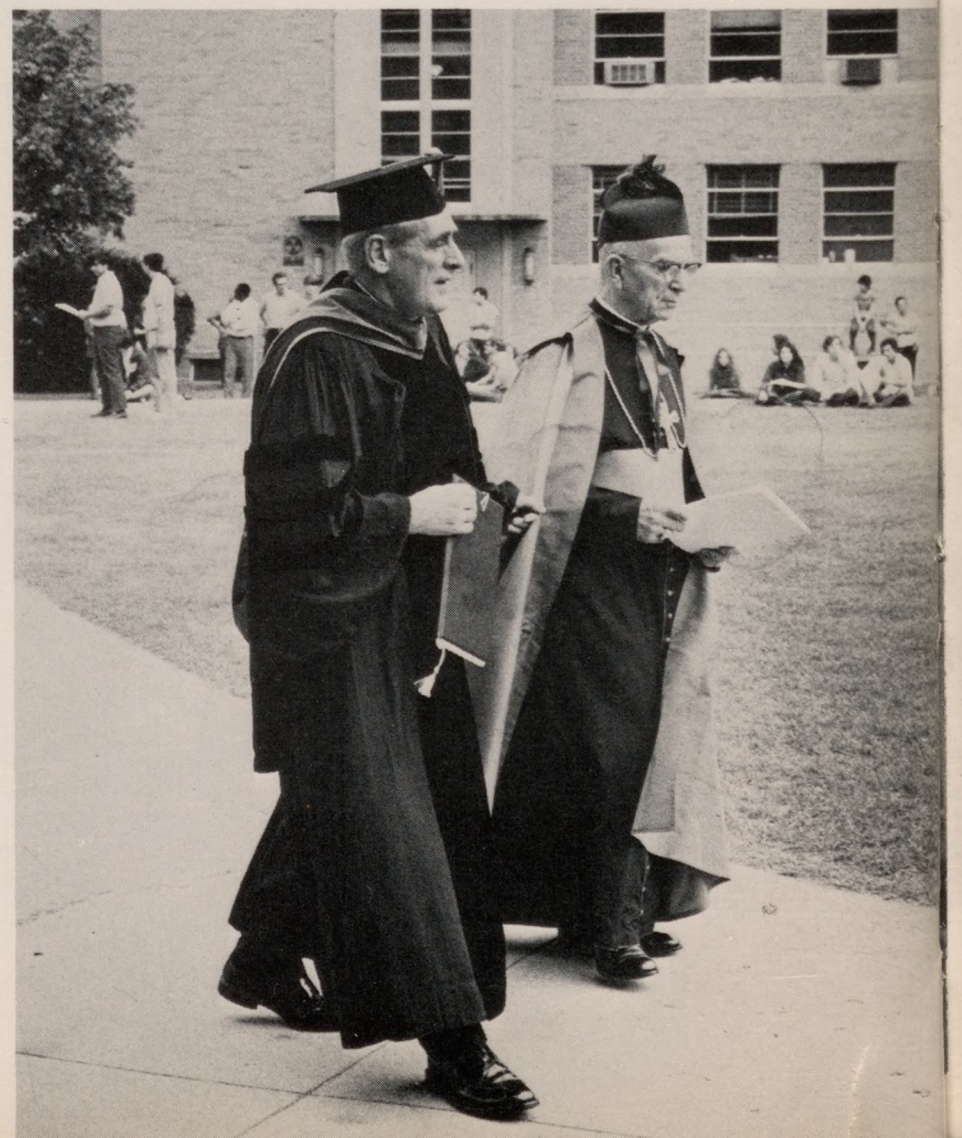

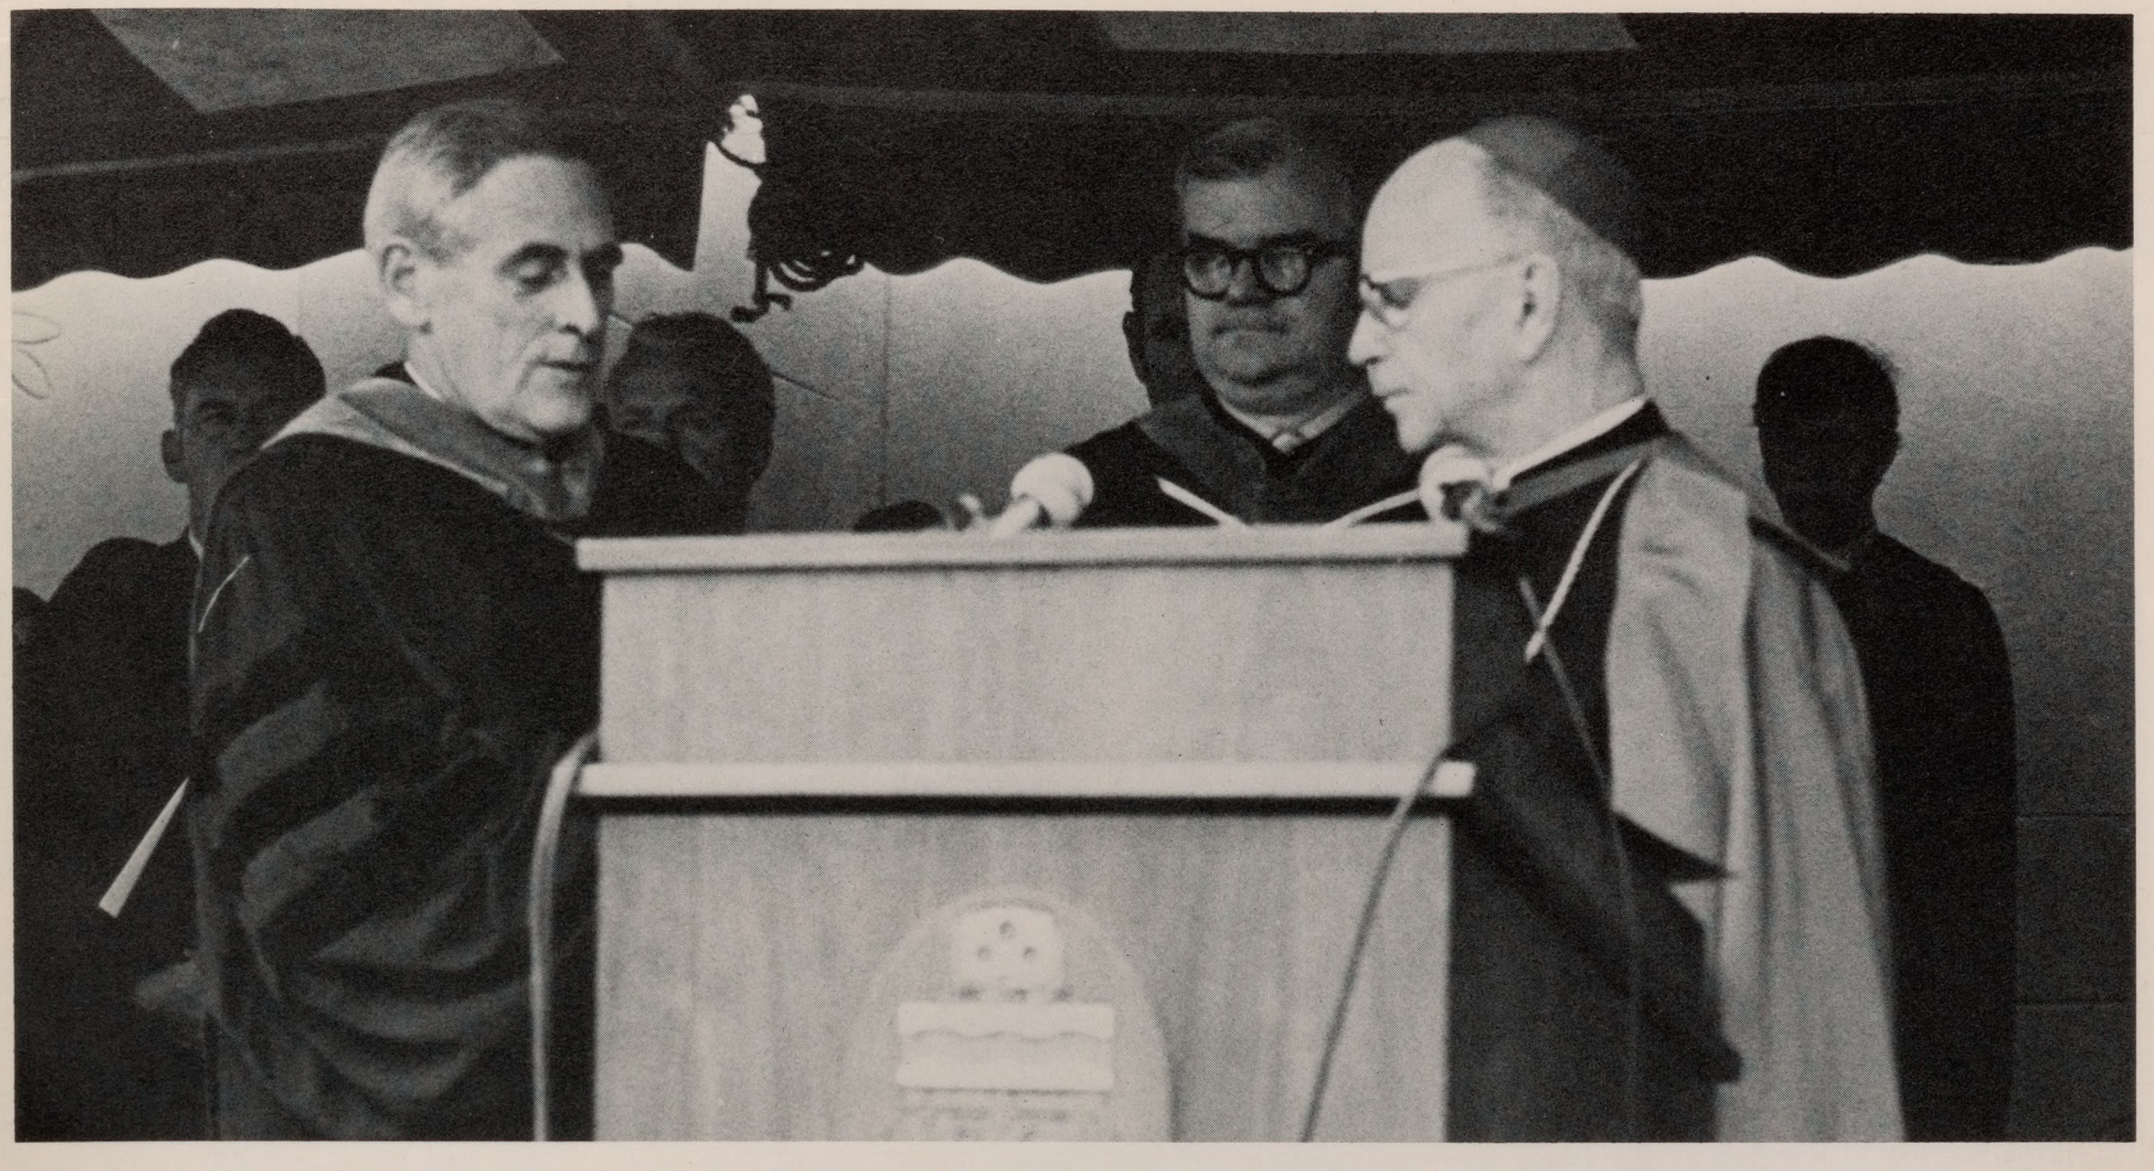

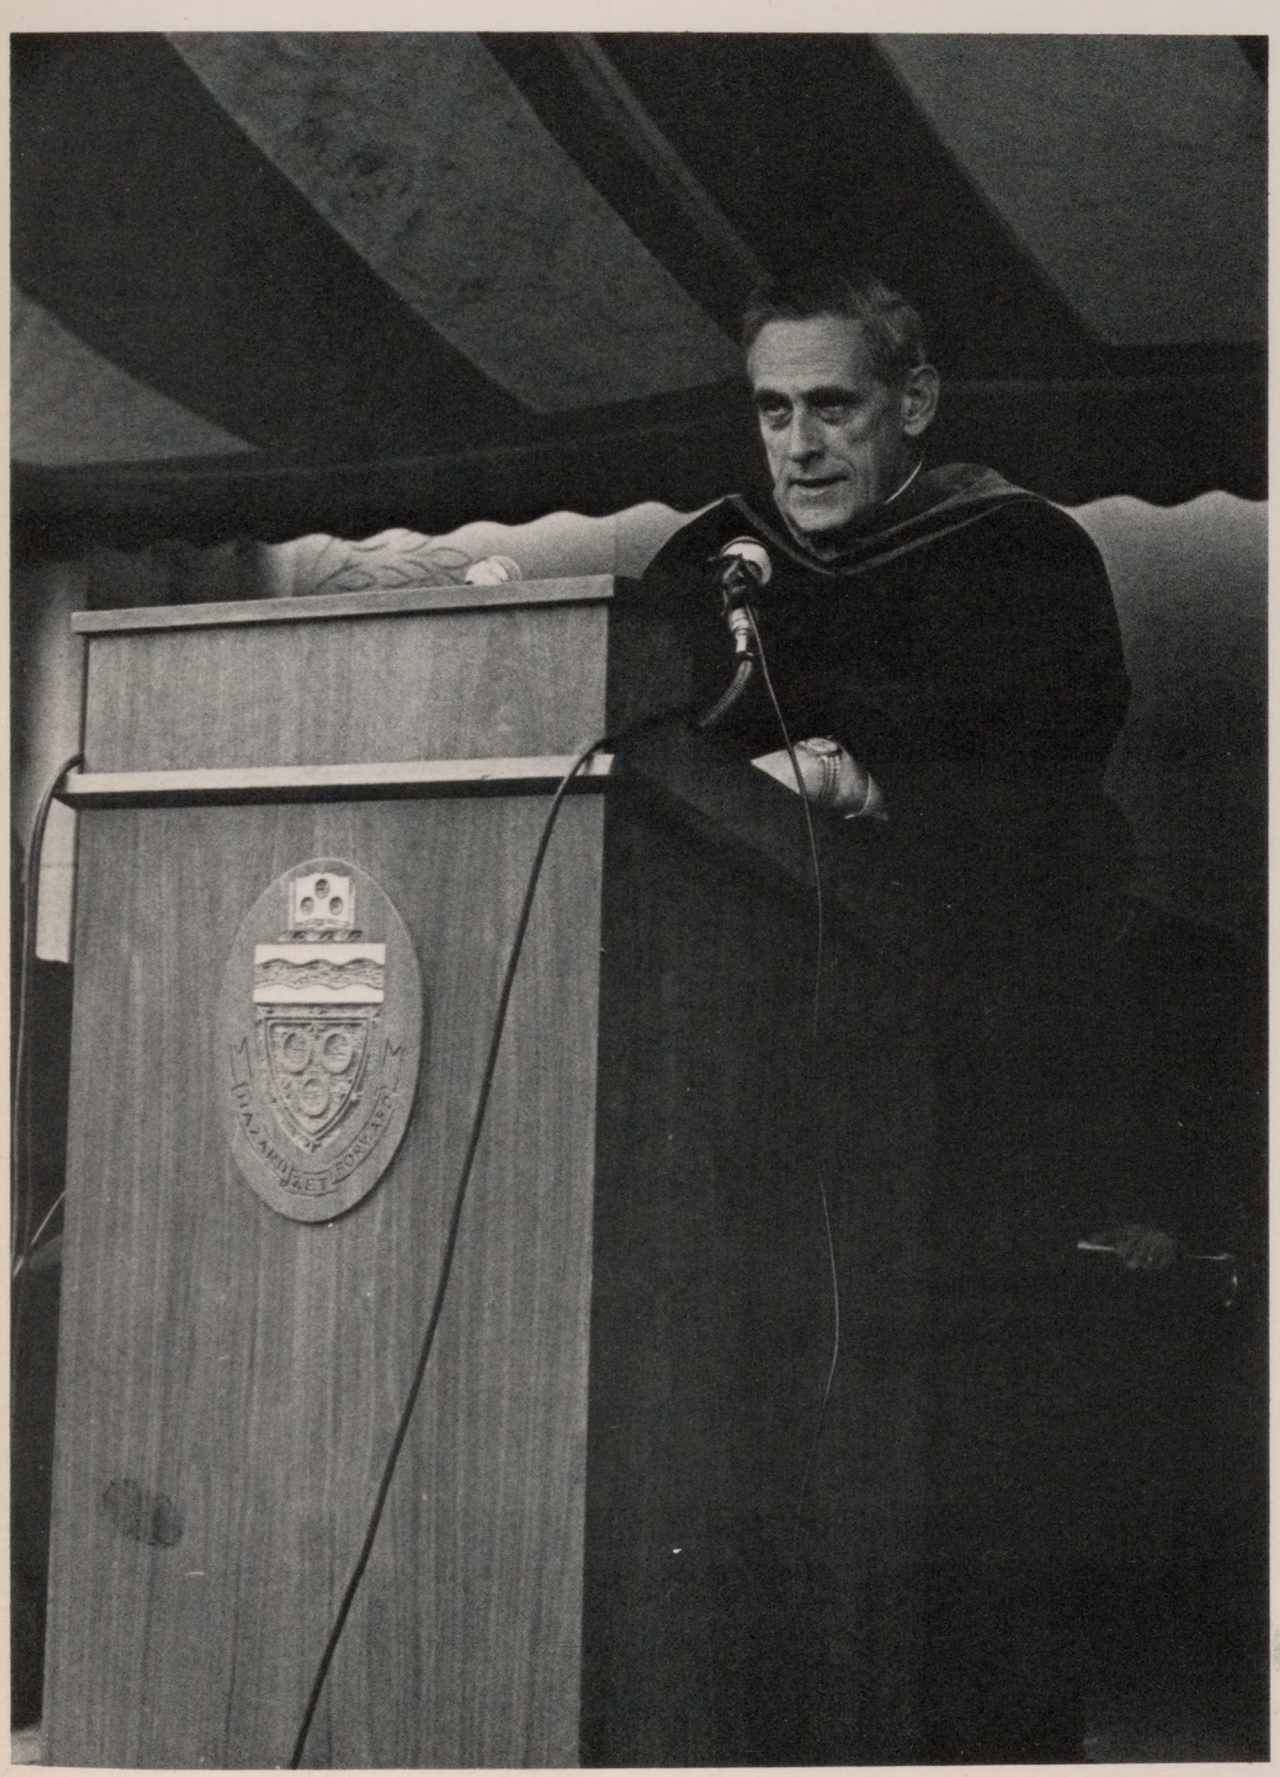

PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION DAY

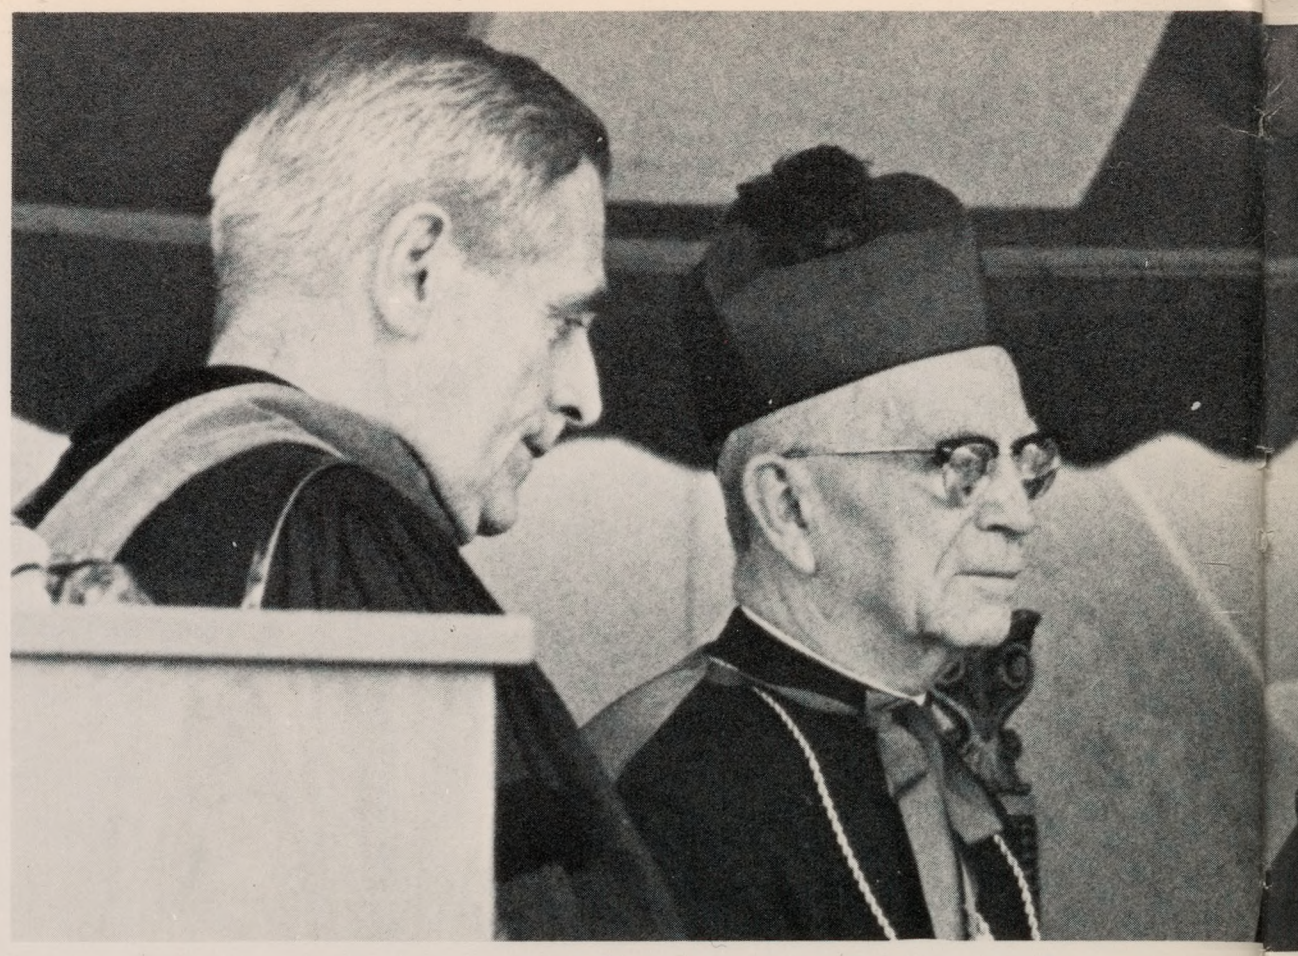

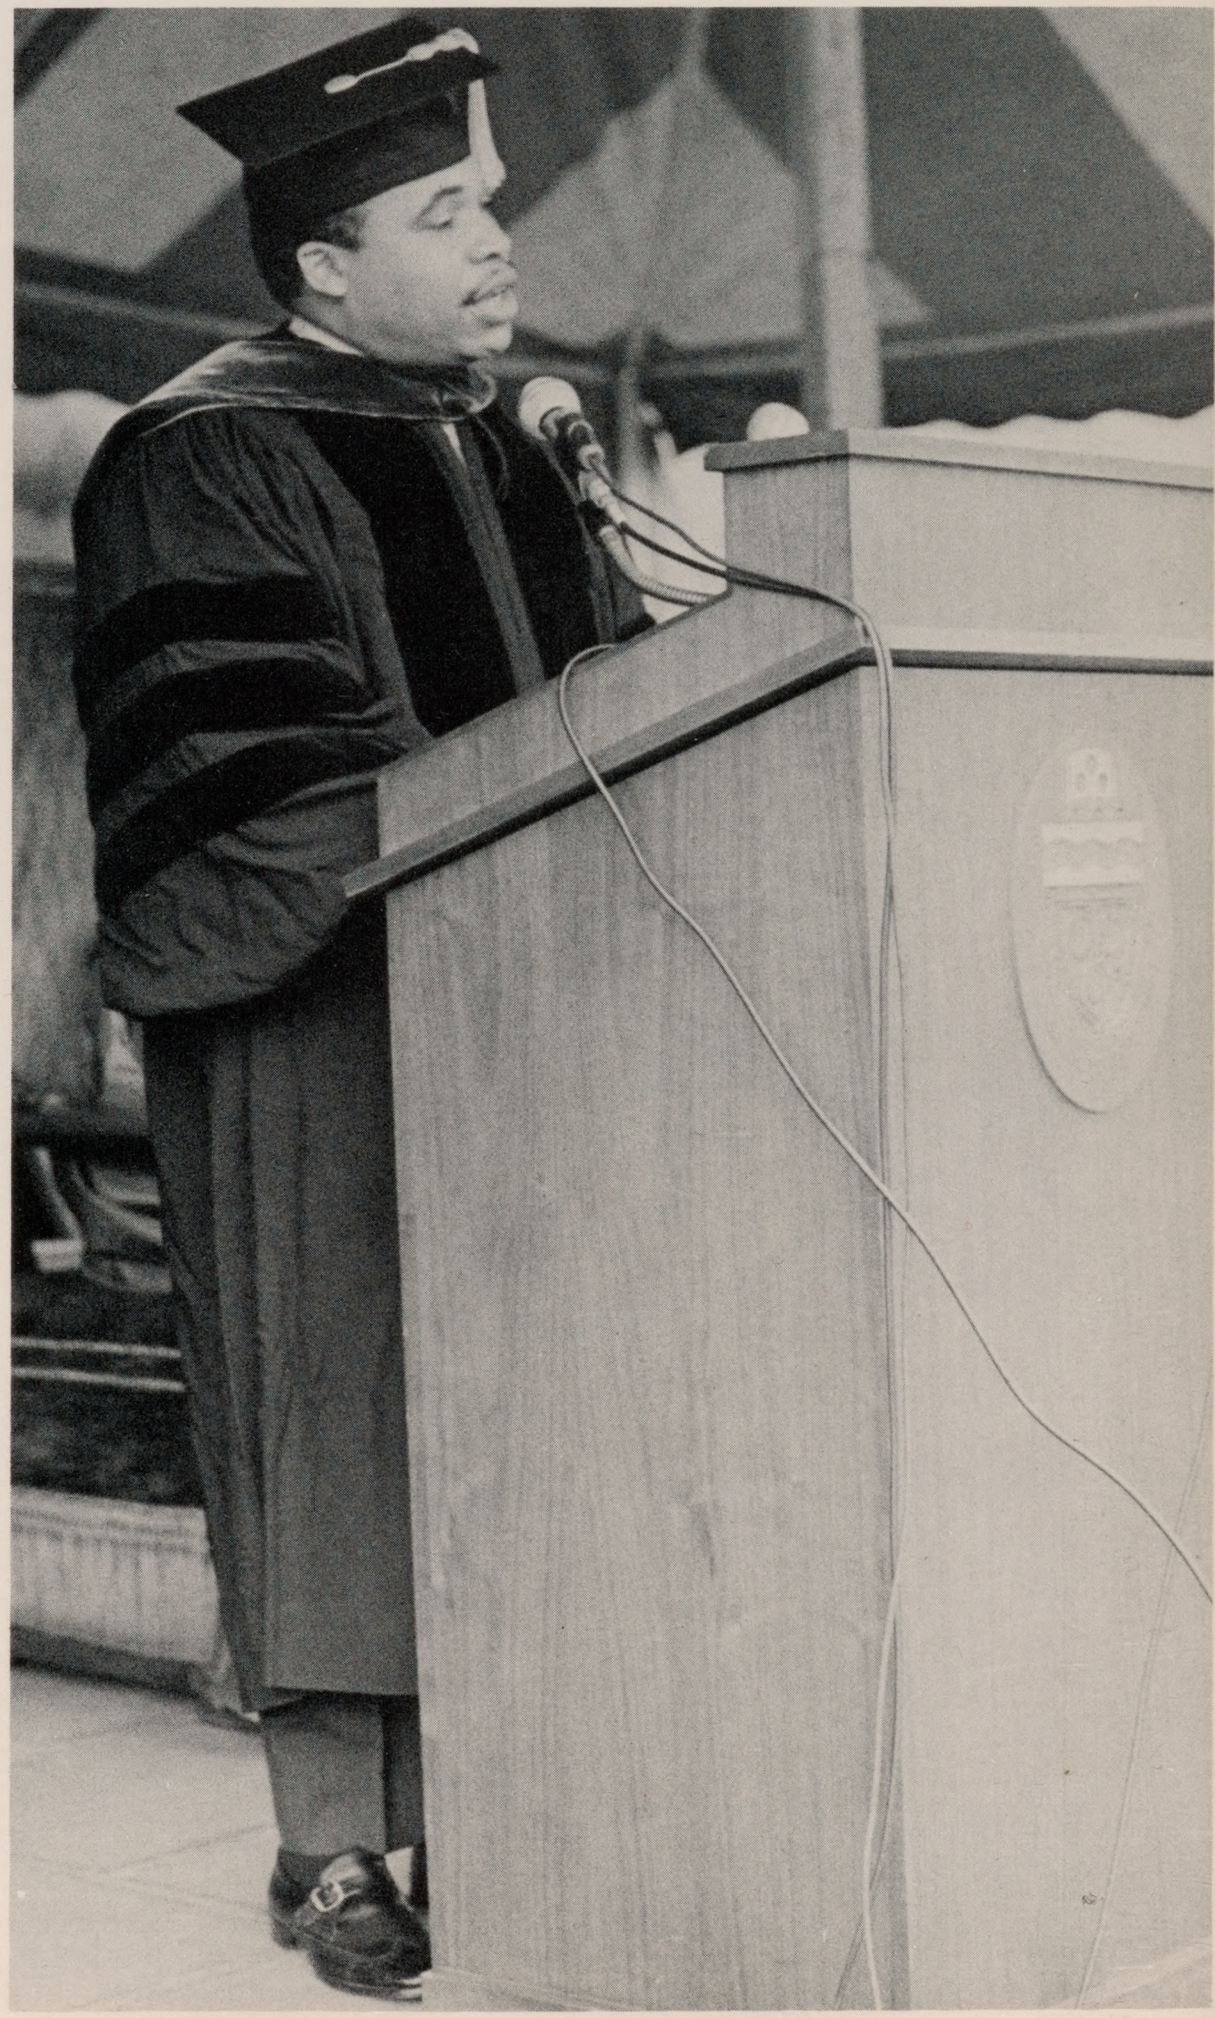

Reverend Thomas Fahy had been serving as fourteenth president of Seton Hall for five months when the day chosen for his formal inauguration arrived. It was an overcast and threatening October day well-suited to the cheerful and respectful artificiality of the occasion.

It was an unreal day as the University dressed itself up out of season. The putting out of flags, the setting up of chairs on the lawn and the ceremonial ringing of bells is usually done only once a year in springtime to impress those present on commencement day. But it was fall and all involved made an effort to afford the proper amount of pomp and circumstance to an old friend made new president.

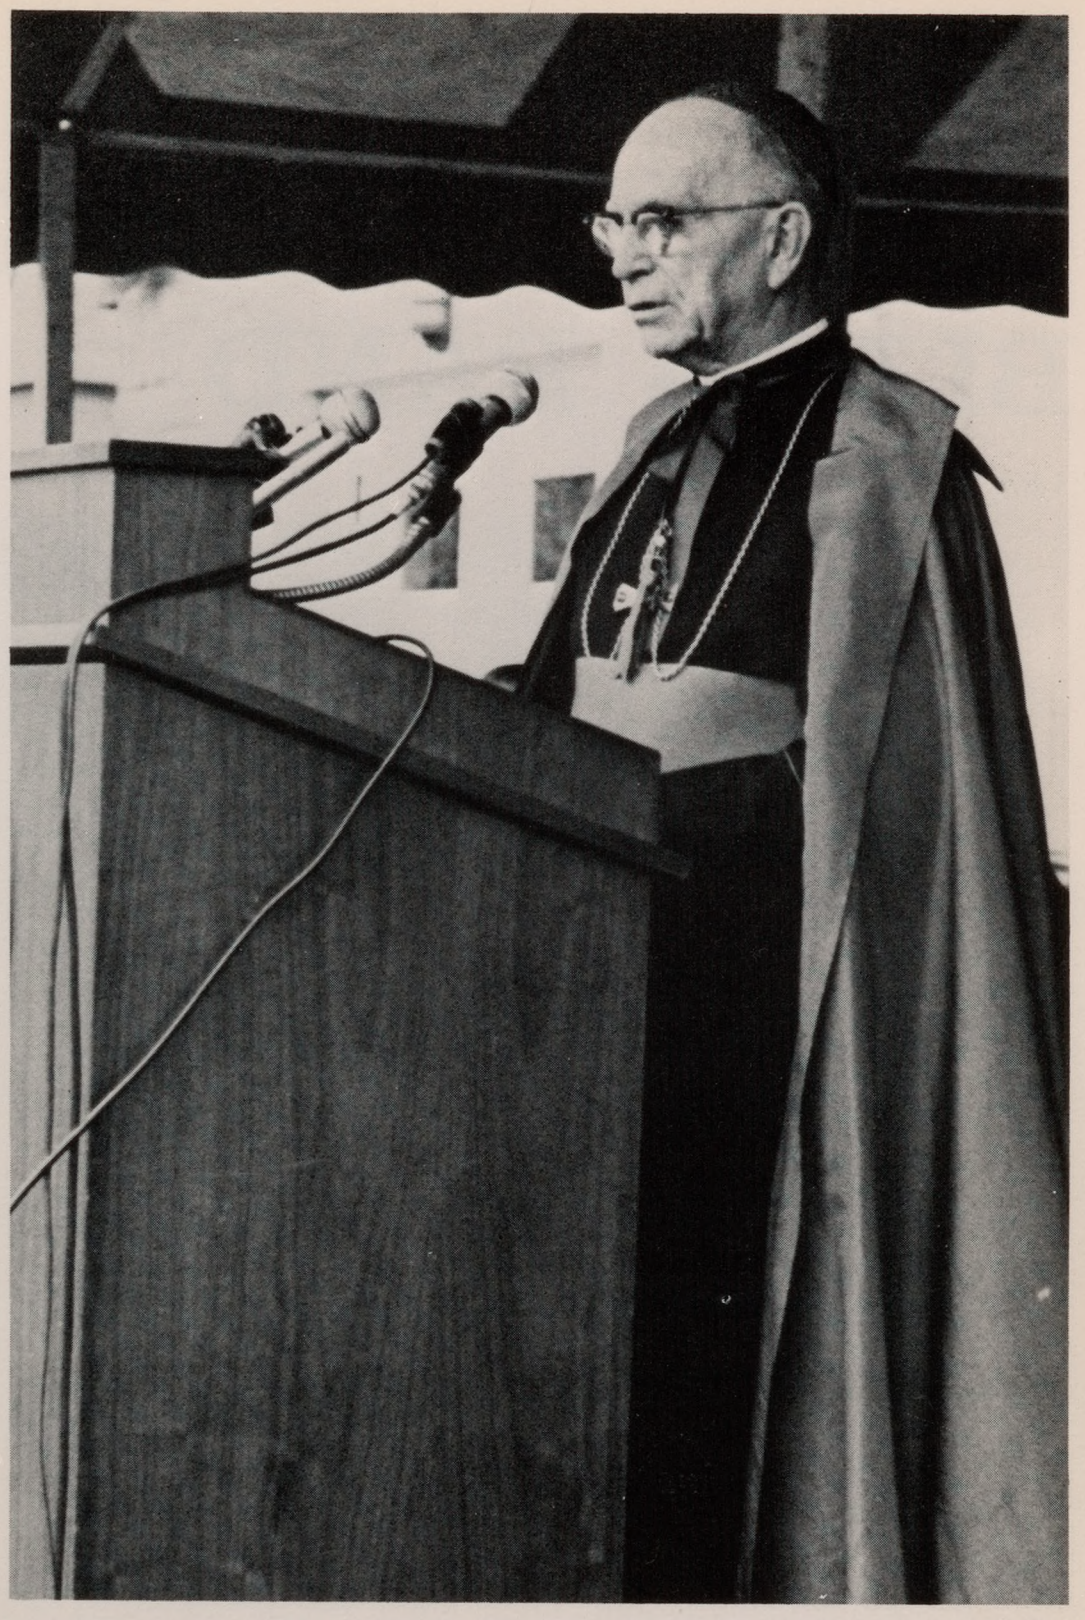

Normally anonymous trustees, red-robed right reverends, officious politicians and middle aged alumni paraded. Faculty sacrificed a day off to don alma mater's colors. Students who usually disdain wearing socks suffered through the afternoon, attempting decorum in caps and gowns.

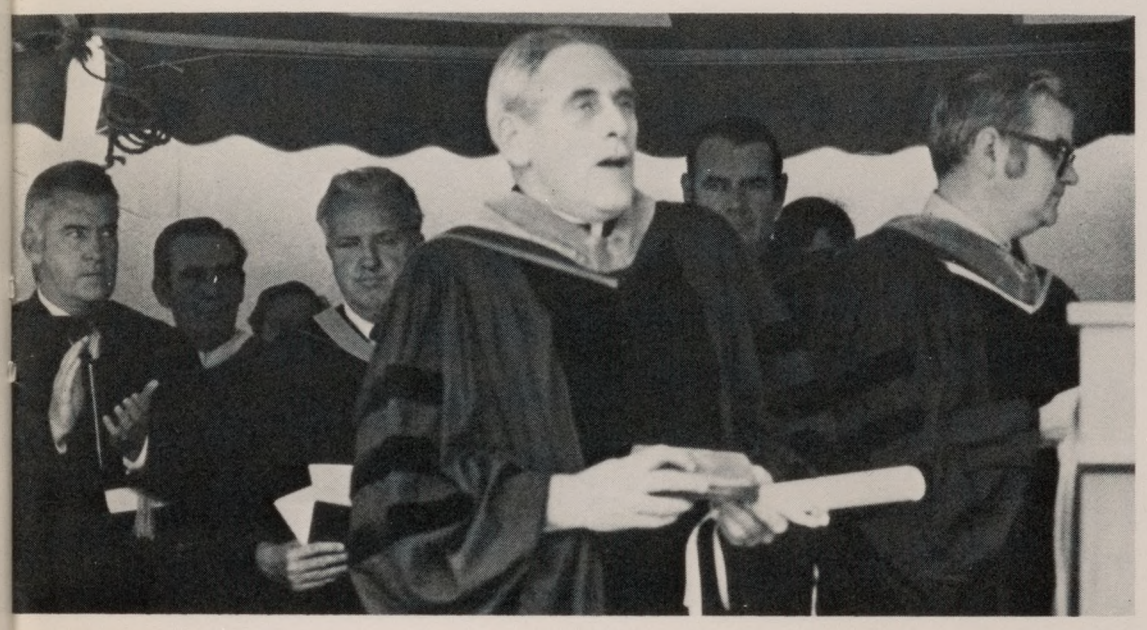

High sounding rhetoric officially greeted the new president. In a fitting gesture, Newark's new Black mayor, Kenneth Gibson, was awarded an honorary doctorate. The archbishop officially conferred presidential authority on Father Fahy. An unceremonious man, Father Fahy endured the afternoon nervously. When the time came he spoke softly and briefly about Seton Hall and relevance. Formality was then forgotten as the evening dissolved in a gala banquet, and the next morning brought business as usual once again.

FOOTBALL

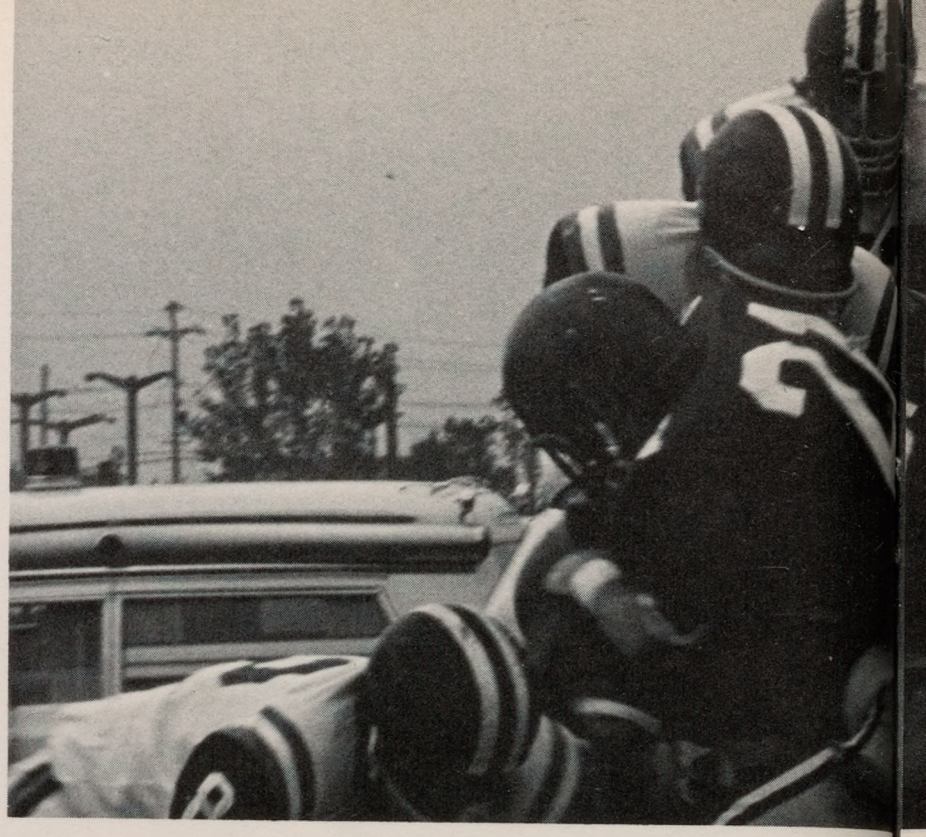

In 1970 Seton Hall put a new look football team on the field and dazzled everyone for three games. Rookie head coach Ed Manigan and his well-drilled gridders recorded impressive victories over Iona, American University and Fairleigh Dickinson before a powerful Georgetown varsity wore down the smaller Pirates and gave them their first taste of defeat.

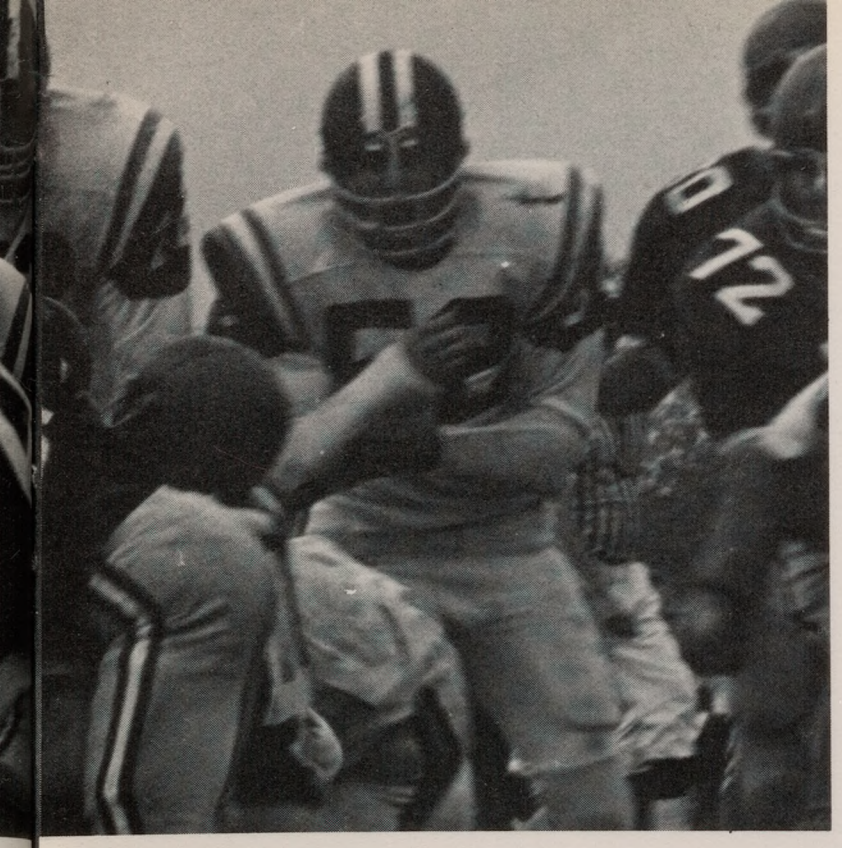

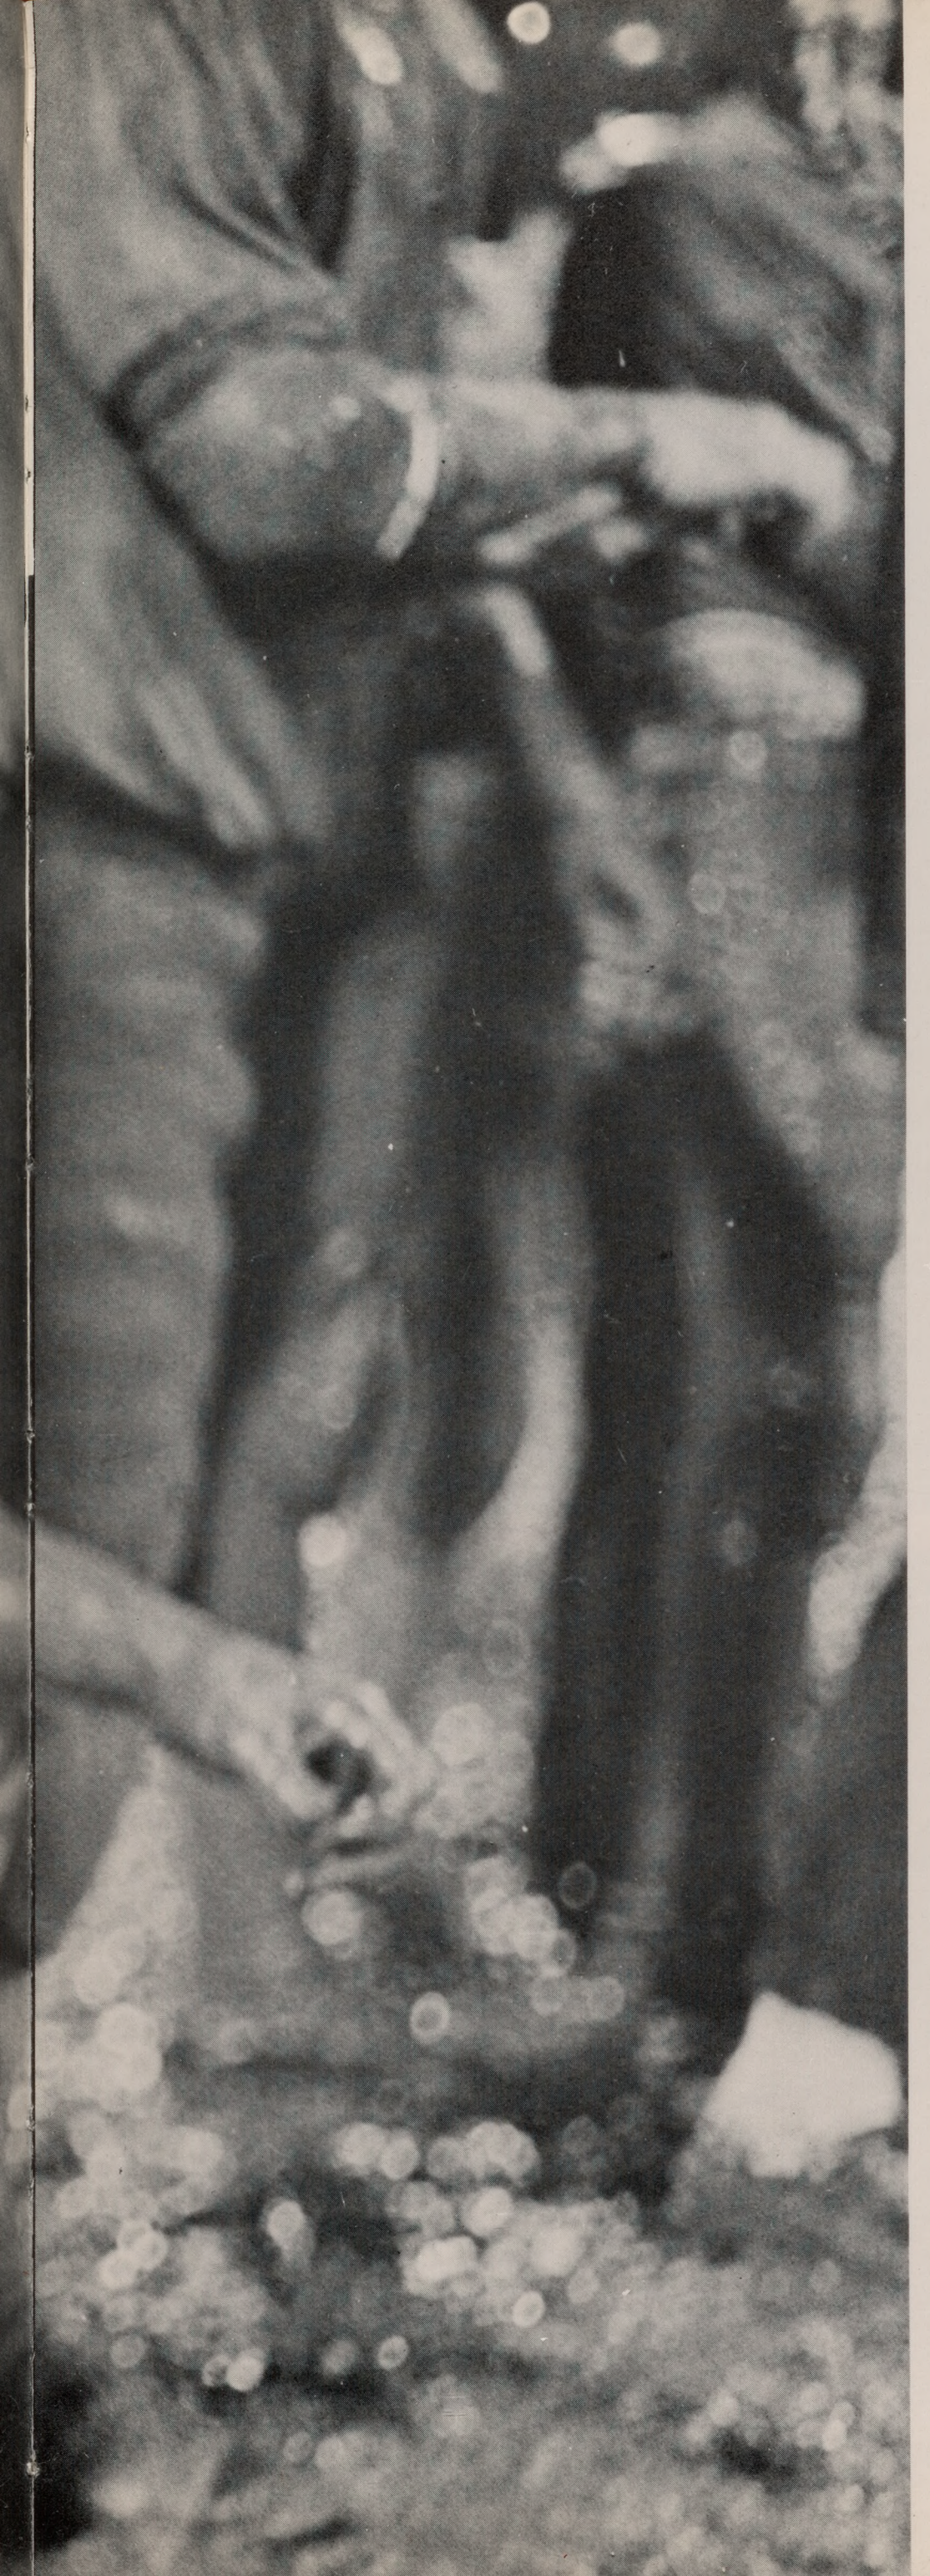

After Georgetown, the opposition got bigger and the Bucs began to be hampered by injuries. The squad was small to begin with, and the injuries reduced its depth to the minimum. Three more losses followed.

As the games wore on, the season's hopes were focussed upon the final game, a grudge match against third-ranked St. Peter's in Jersey City. The mud was no obstacle as the Hall grimly set out to avenge the previous season's loss and salvage 1970.

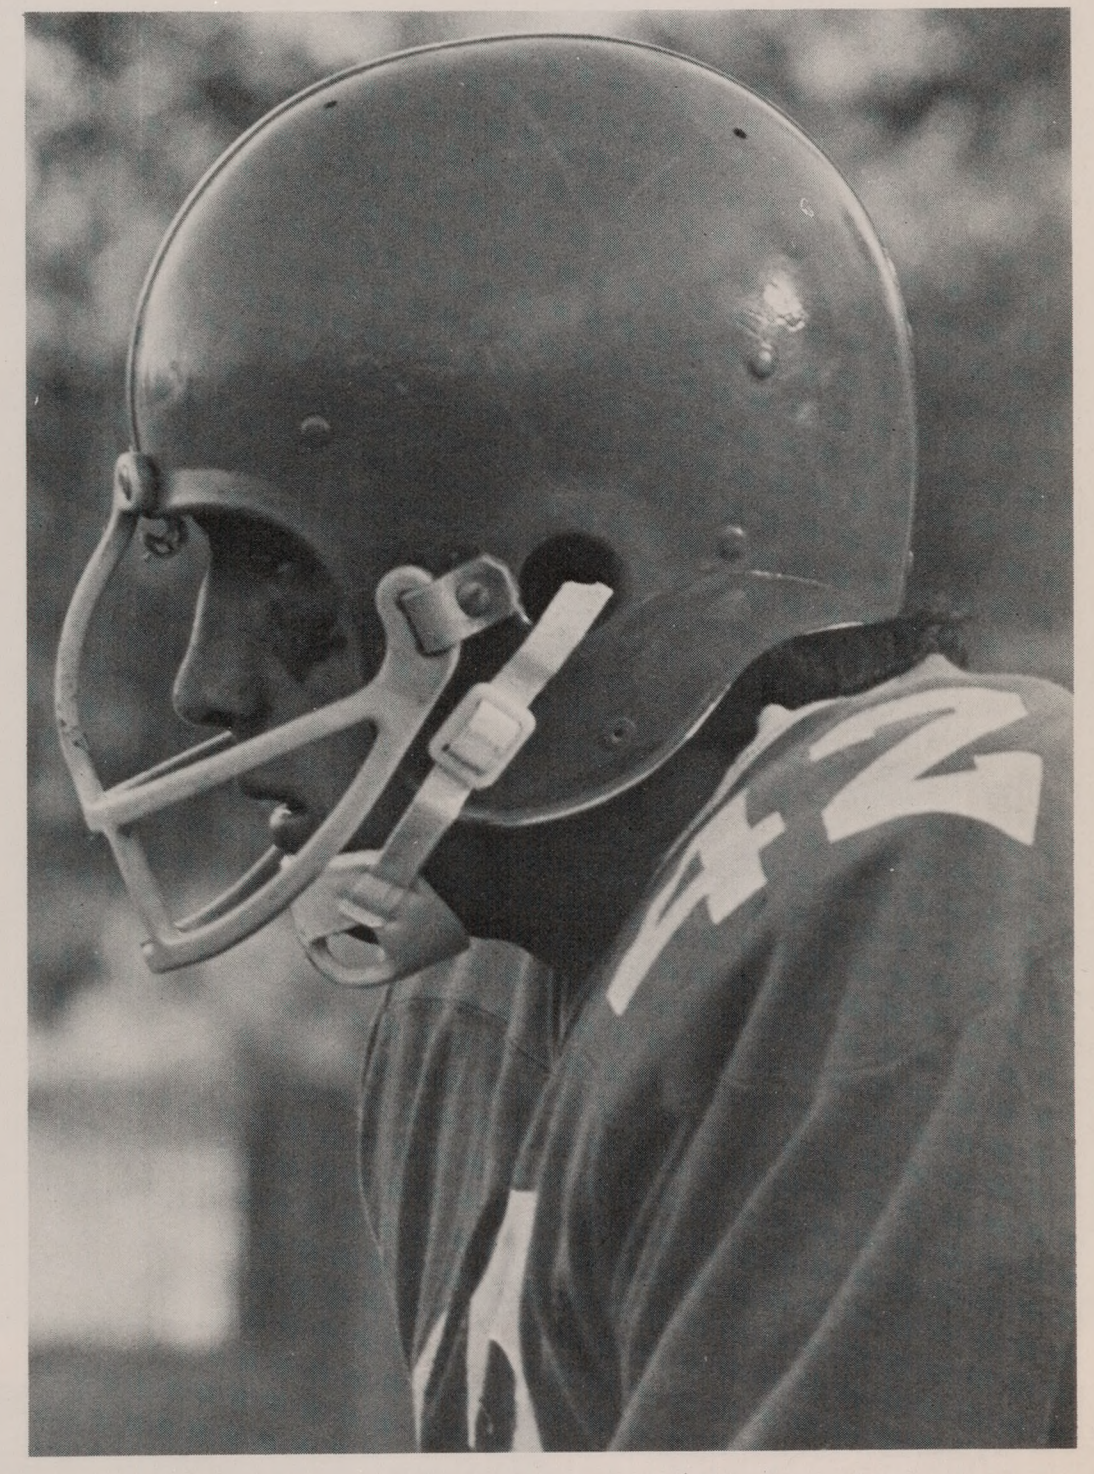

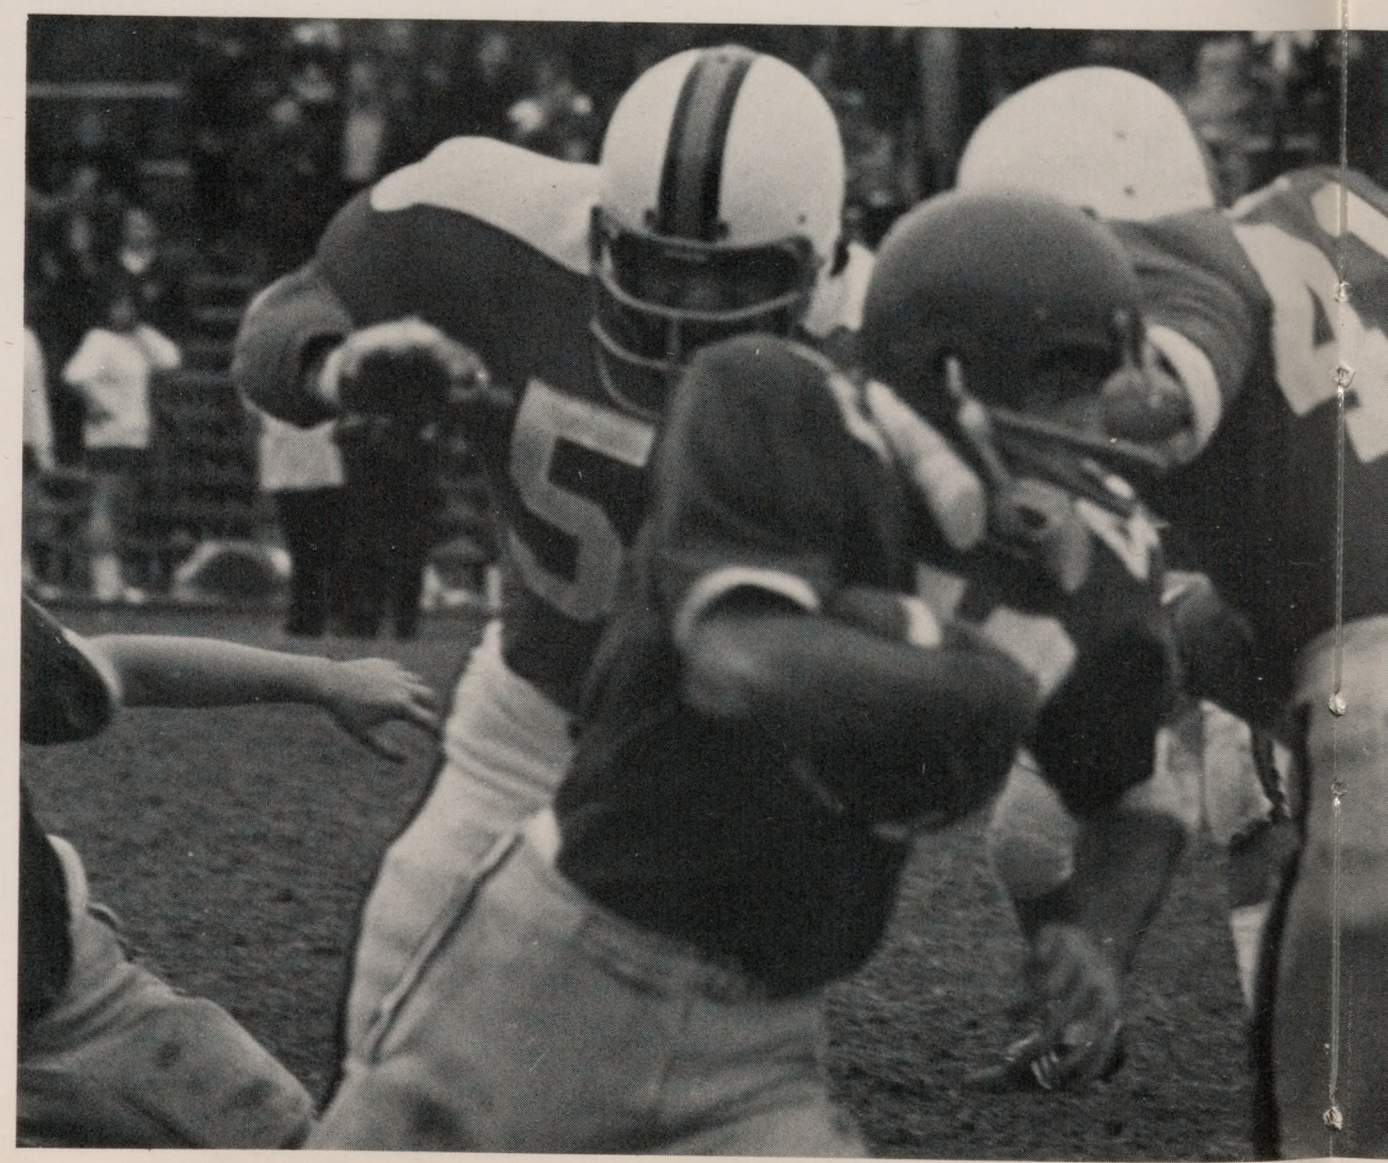

The total physical and mental commitment which playing football requires makes the exultation after a decisive victory all the greater. The win at St. Peter's was unparalleled in Seton Hall football annals.

A successful college football program requires hard work and determination. The players must have speed, strength, drive and courage. It was a successful year at Seton Hall.

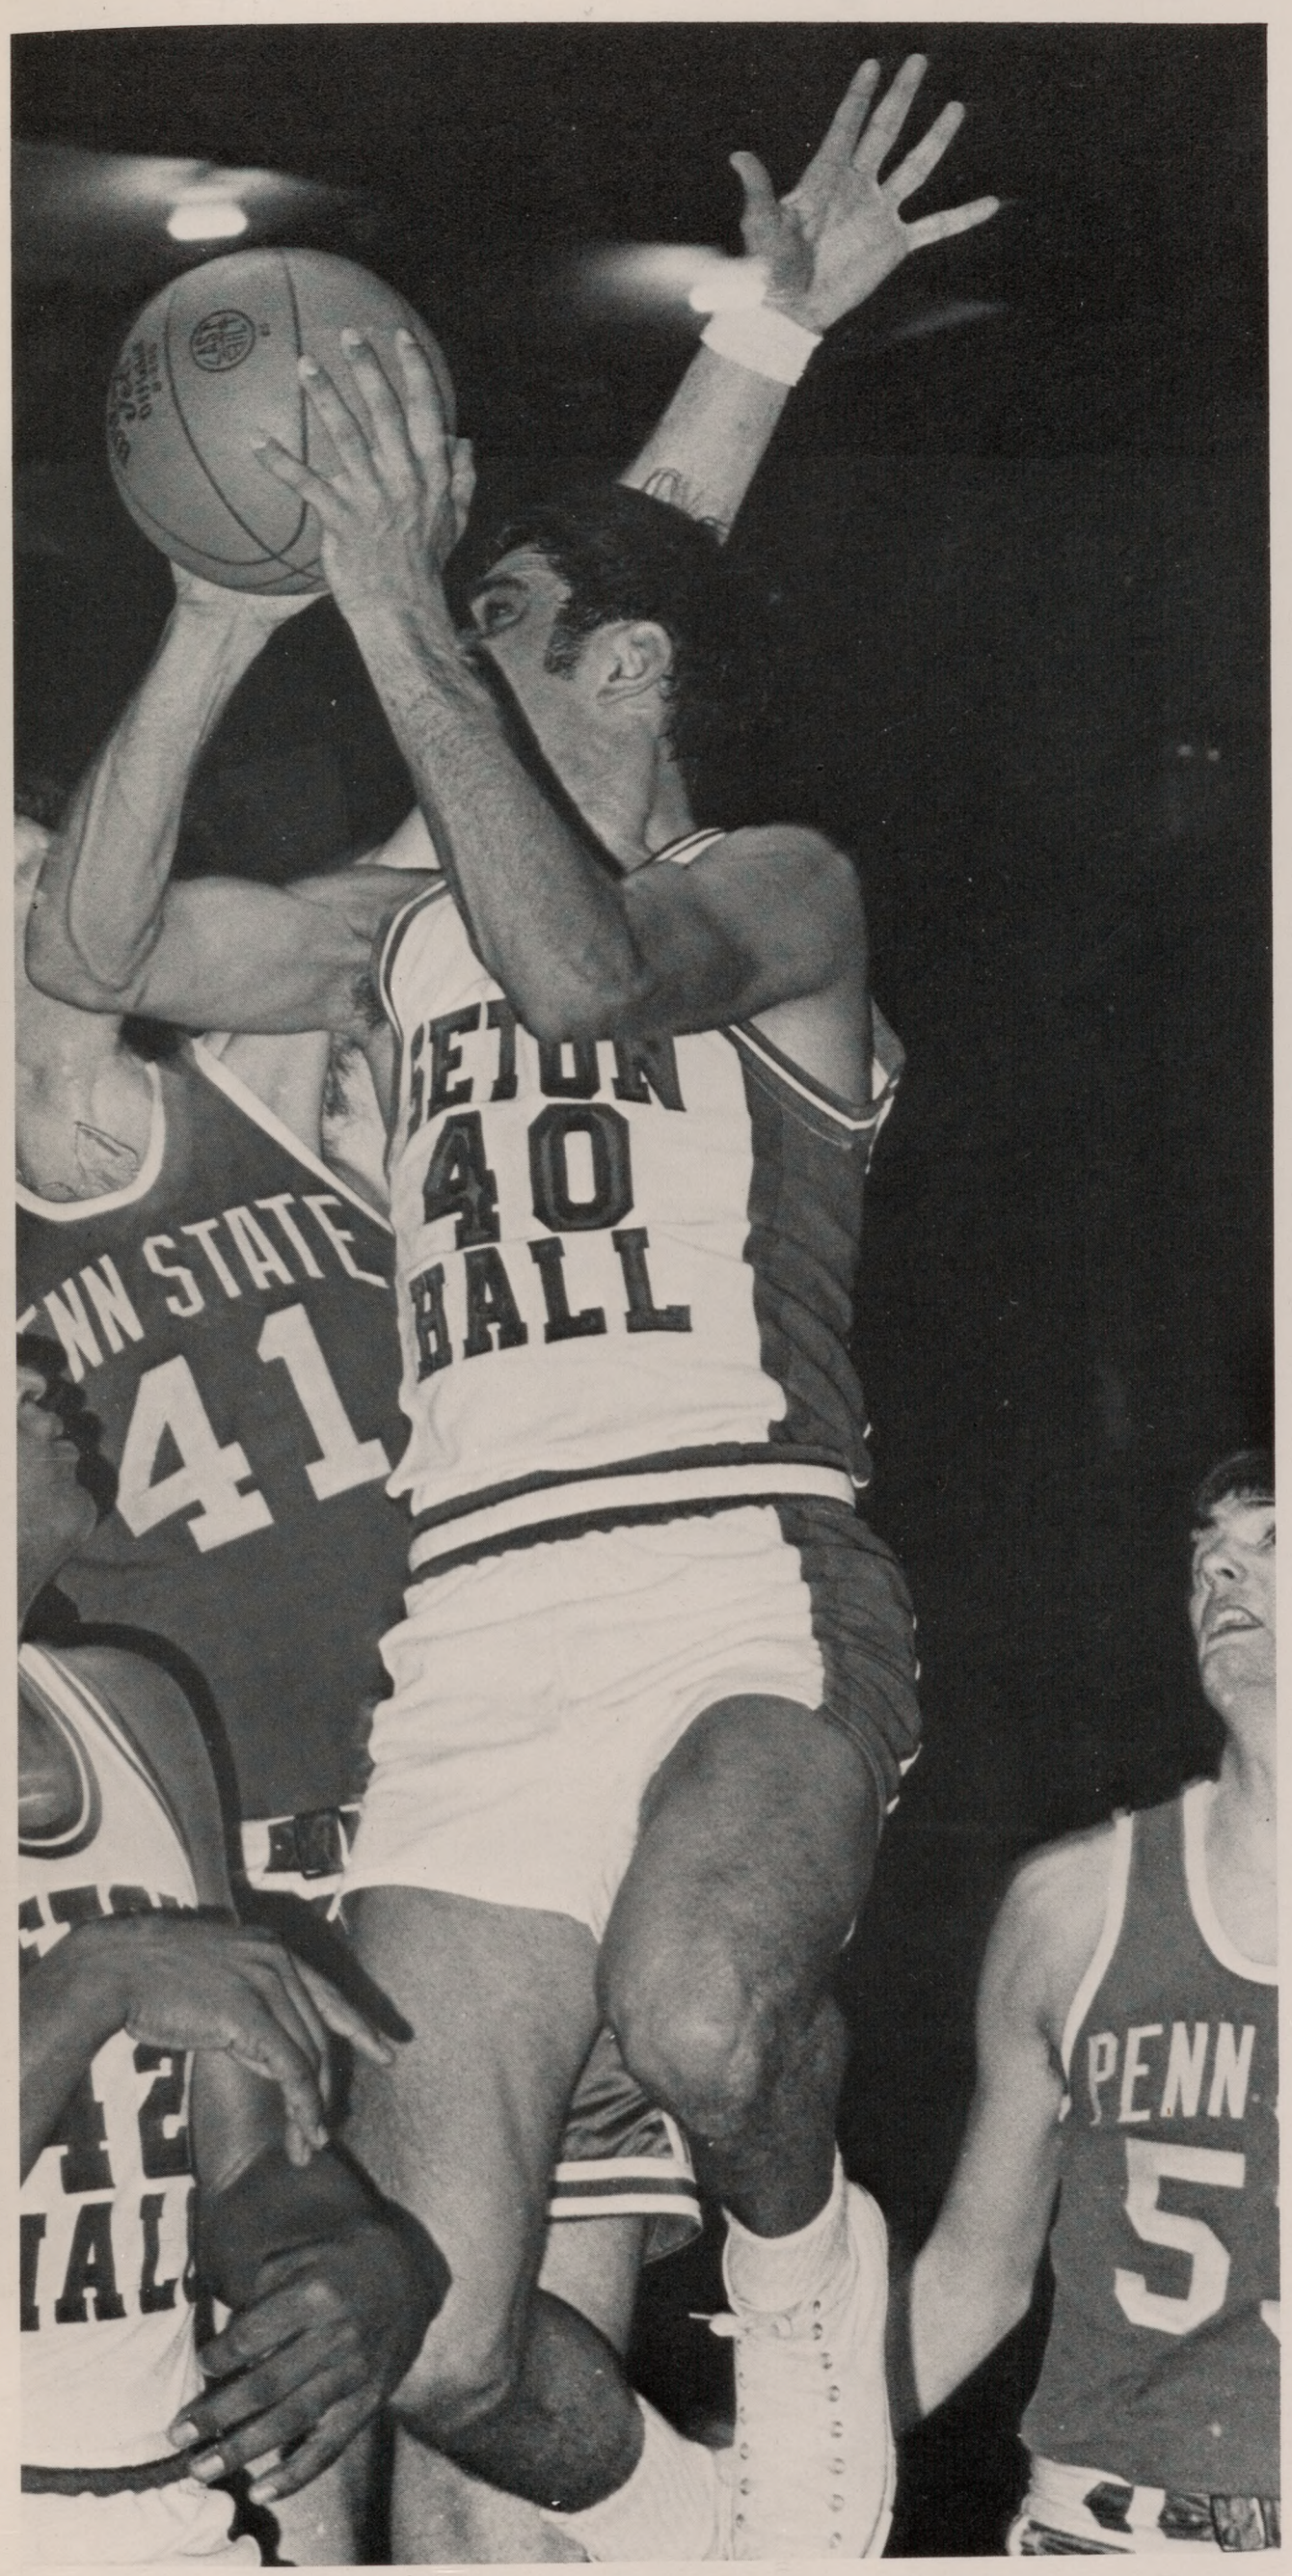

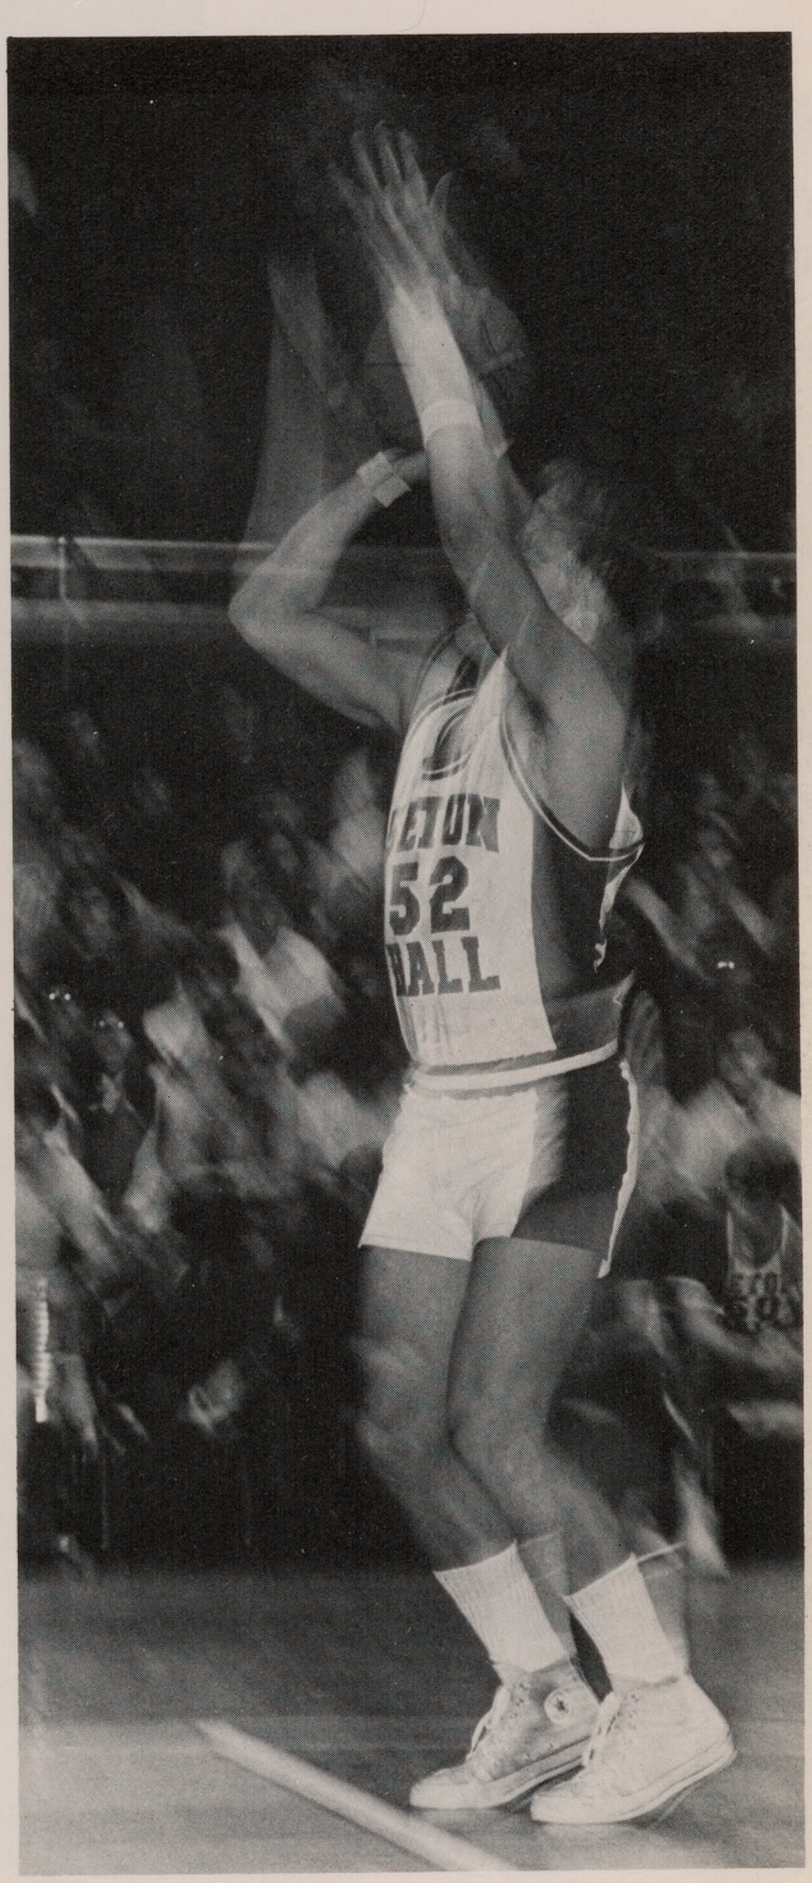

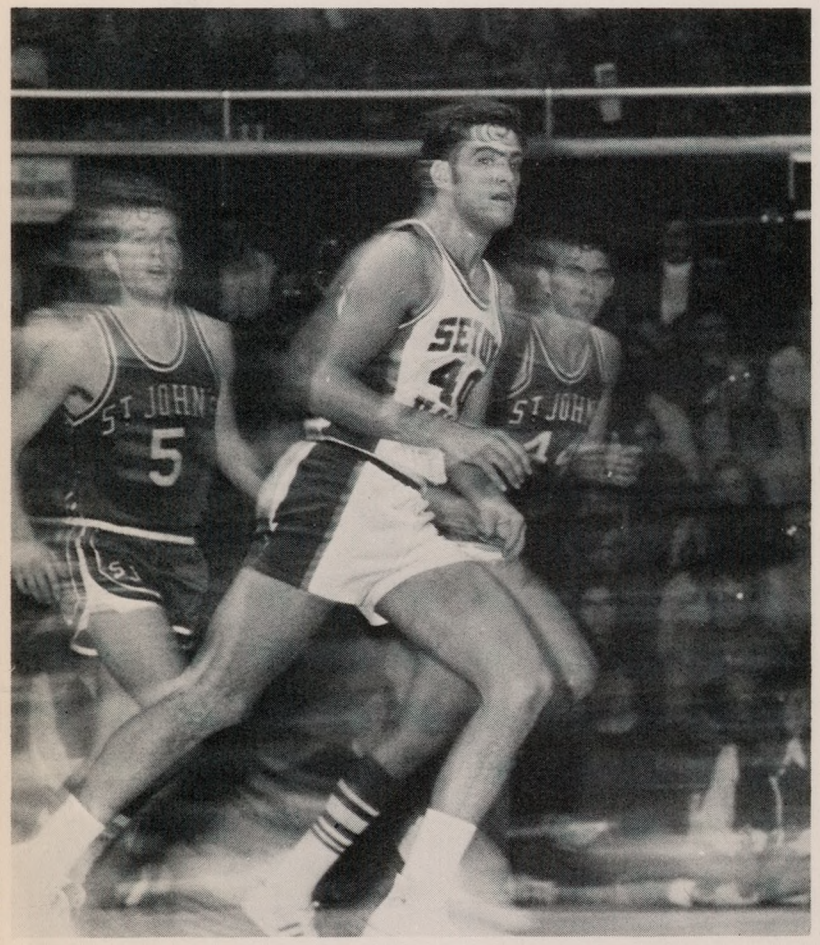

BASKETBALL

There was even more optimism than usual as the basketball season opened. New coach Bill Raftery had most of last year's team and a couple of promising sophomores to work with.

The optimism proved premature as the Pirates first three games landed in the loss column. It became evident that the schedule was going to be overpowering once again. Then a serious injury sidelined senior co-captain Mel Knight for most of the season.

Coach Raftery tried to make his players know what to do and a gutsy sophomore named Caffrey tried to run through a couple of walls.

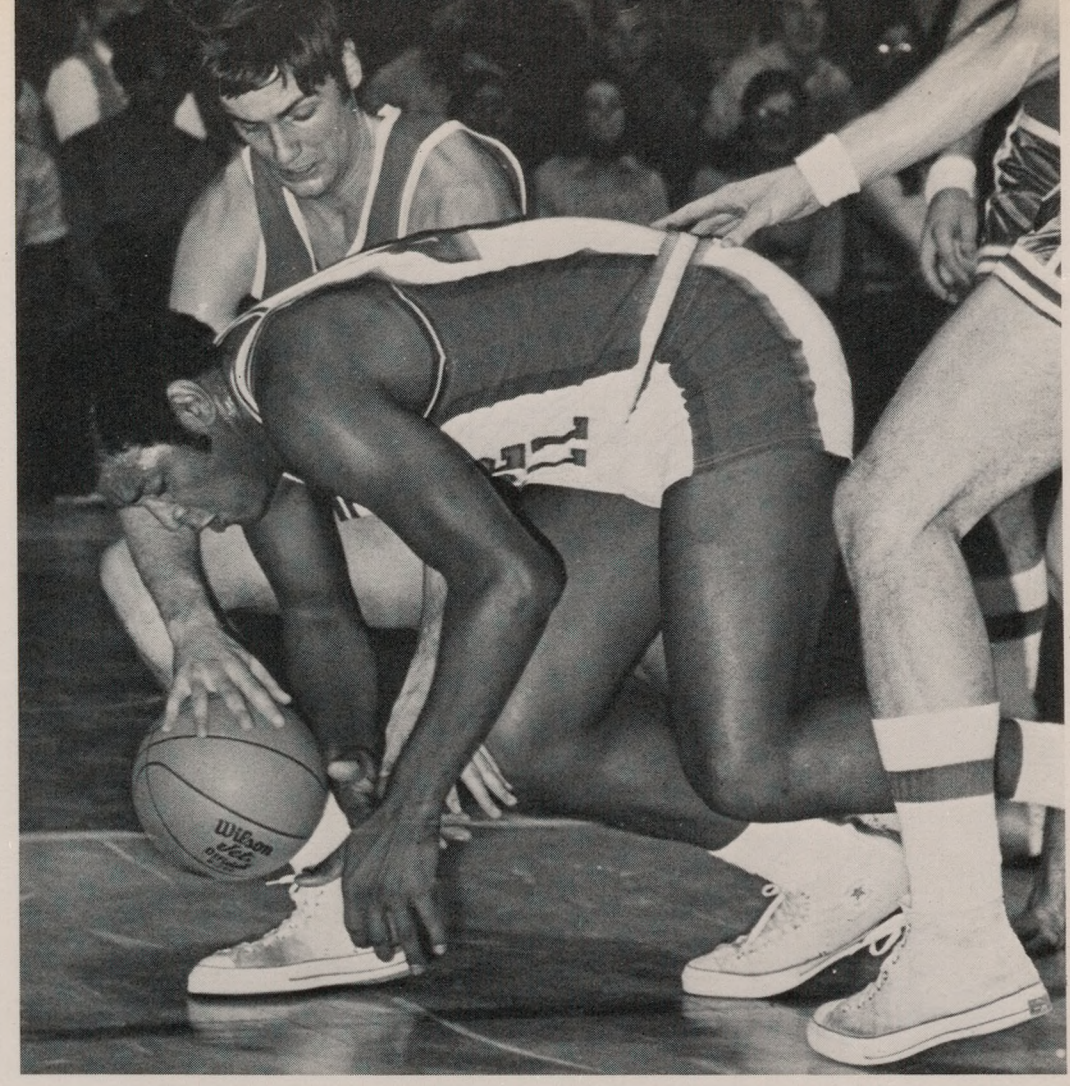

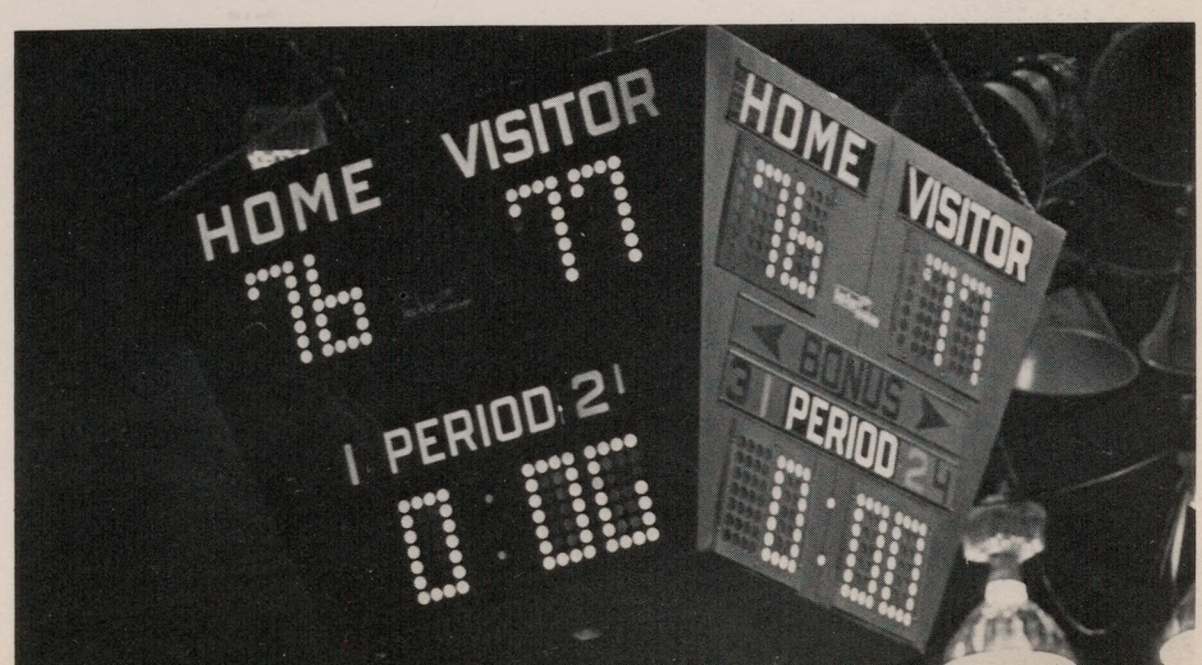

The Penn State game tells a lot of the story of Pirate basketball this season. The smaller Bucs battled behind their determined co-captain, Gary Cavallo, and their talented forward, Ken House, only to lose on an overtime buzzer shot.

Raftery tried to match his players' enthusiasm. He succeeded and then some, making few friends among referees, but a lot among fans.

With Knight out of the lineup, the Hall leaned rather heavily upon the burly shoulders of junior Ken House. Playing head-to-head with genuine All-Americans, House always proved equal to the task.

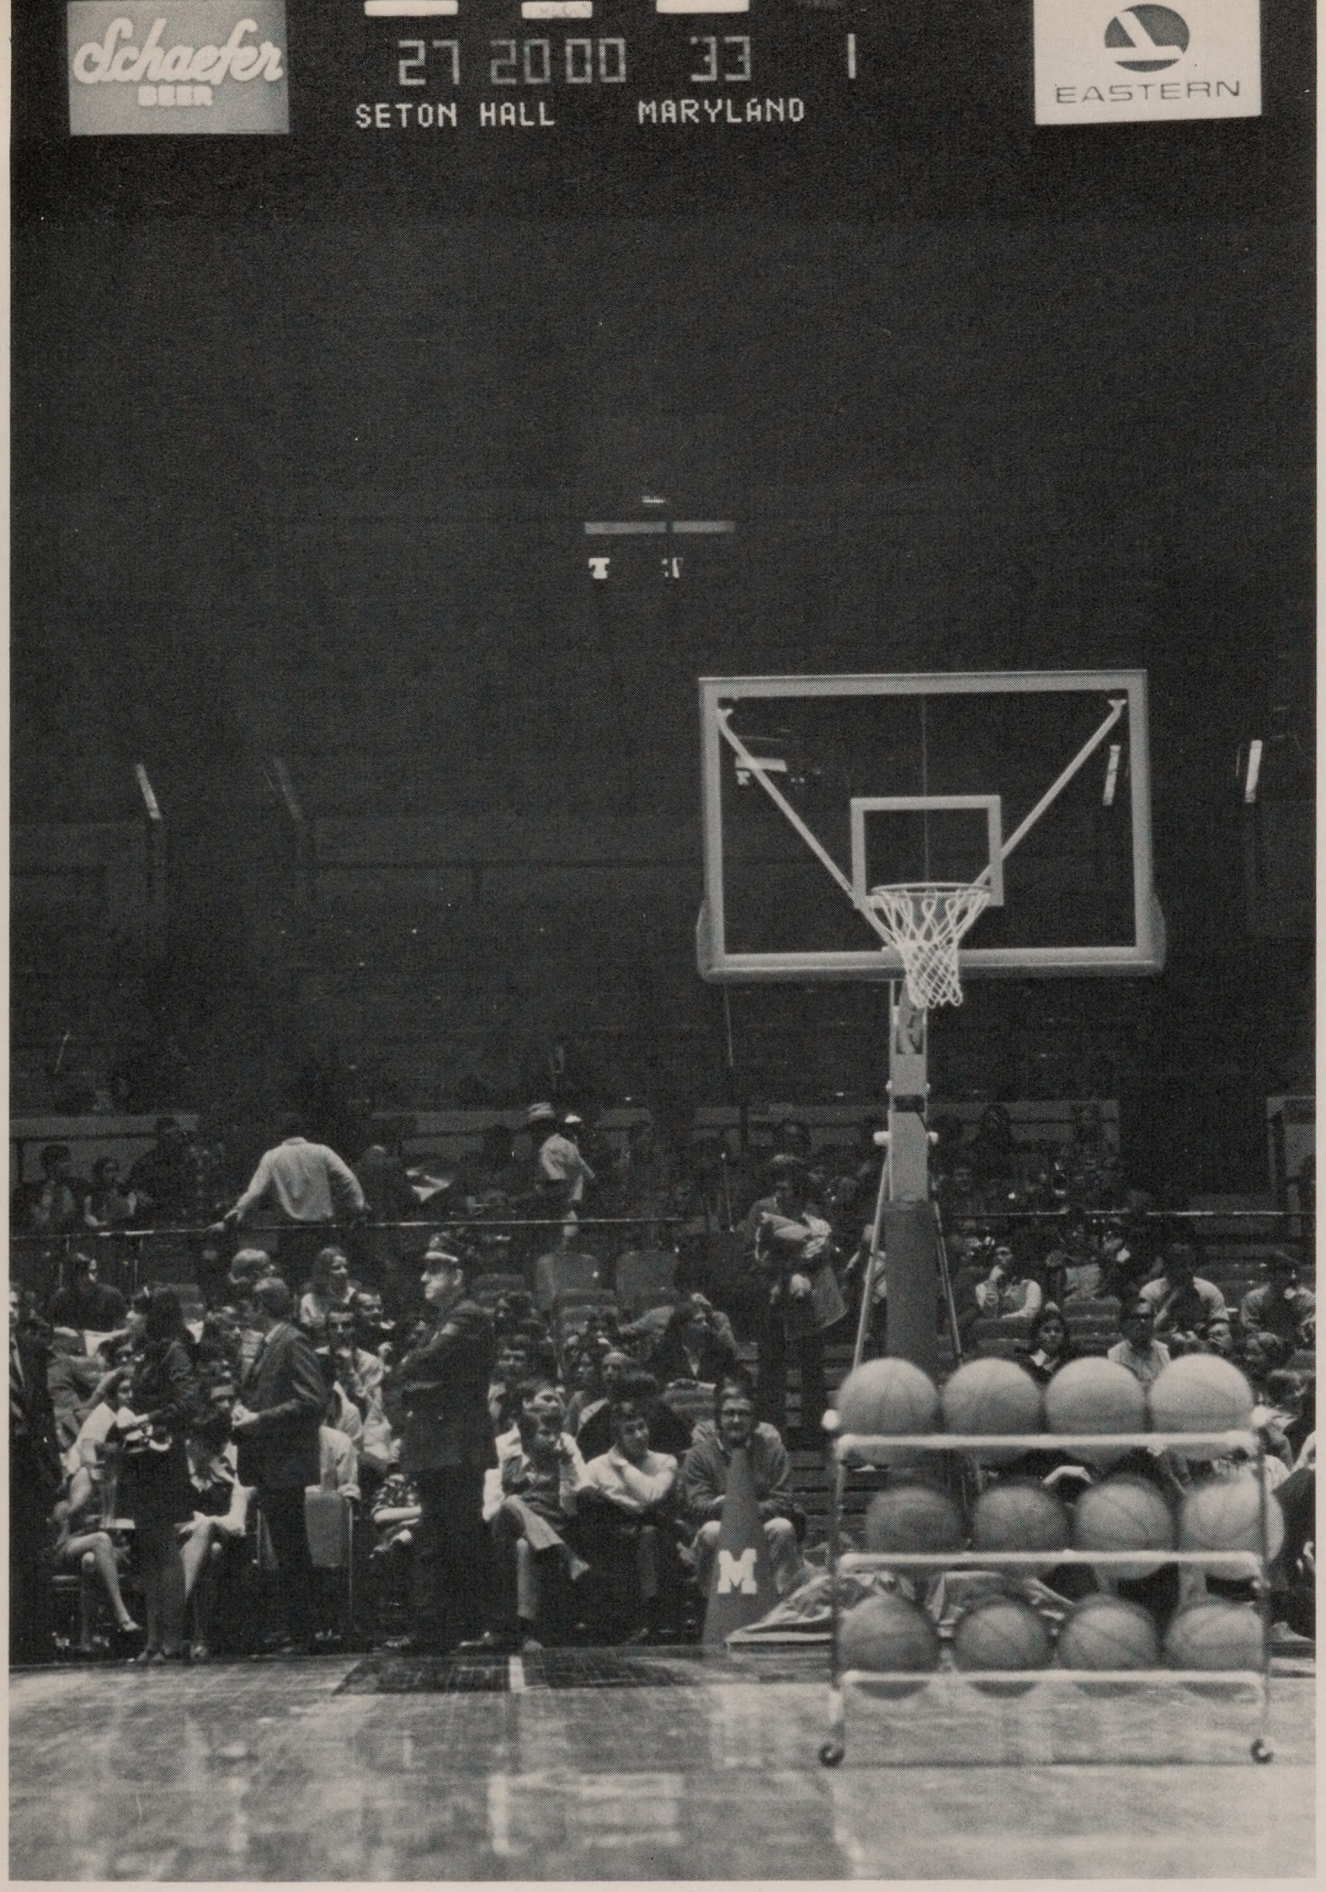

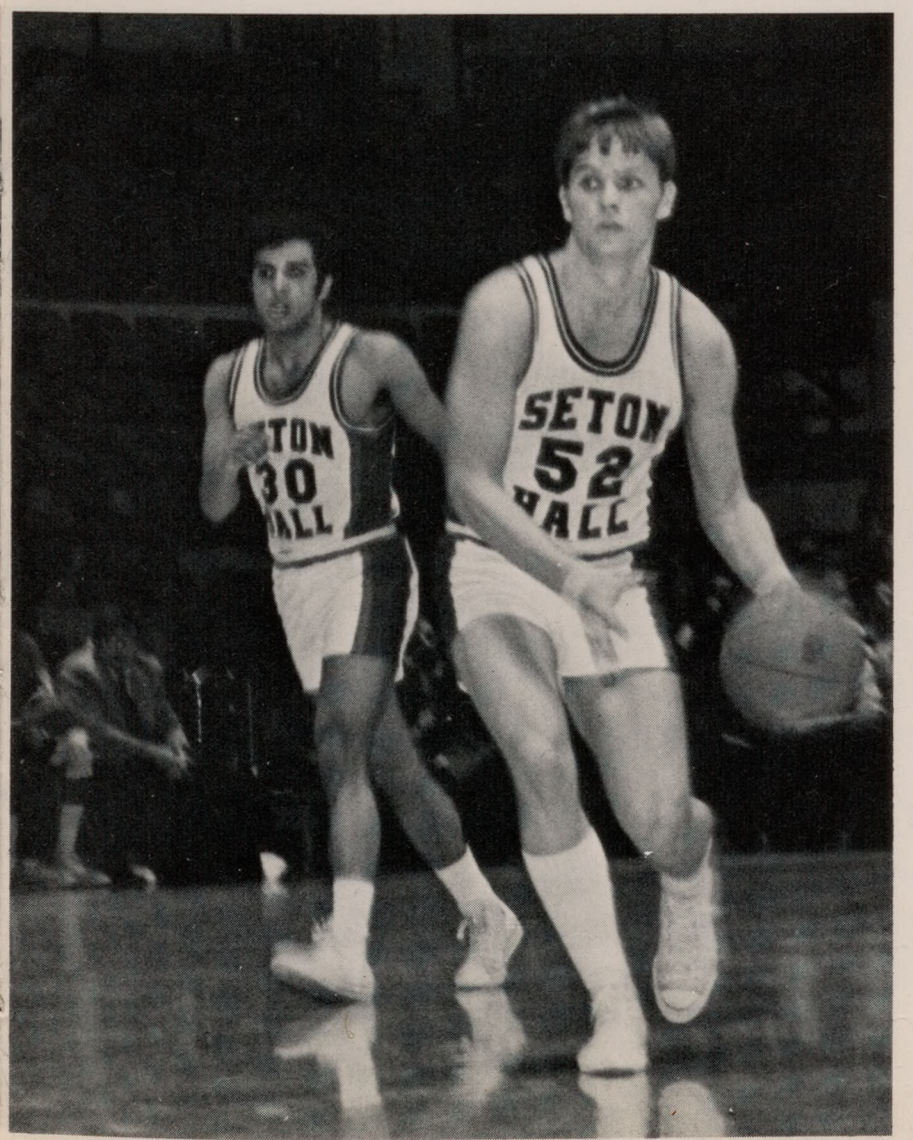

The Bucs met three Atlantic Coast Conference teams in Madison Square Garden, adding a little spice to the season.

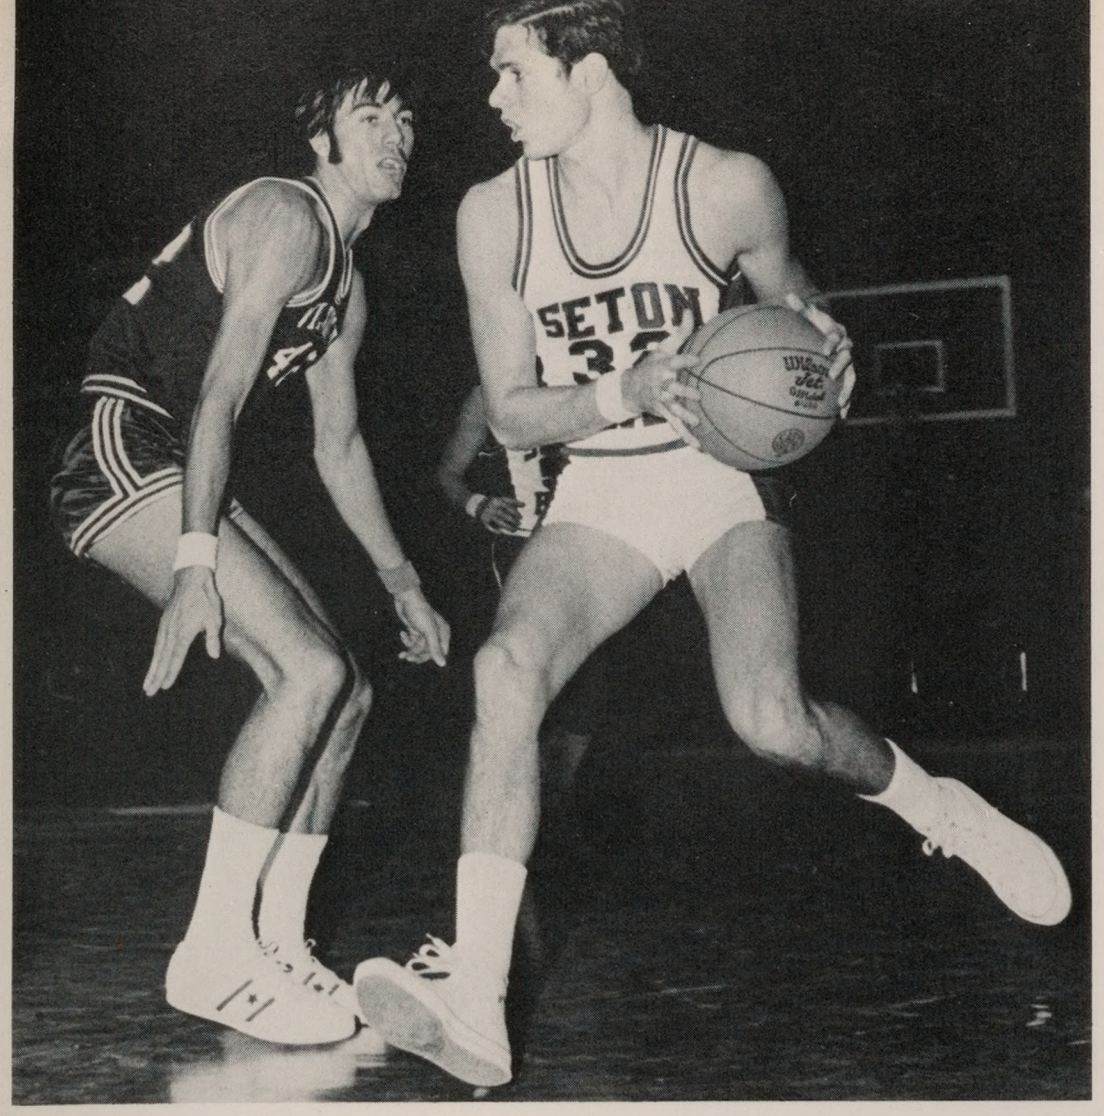

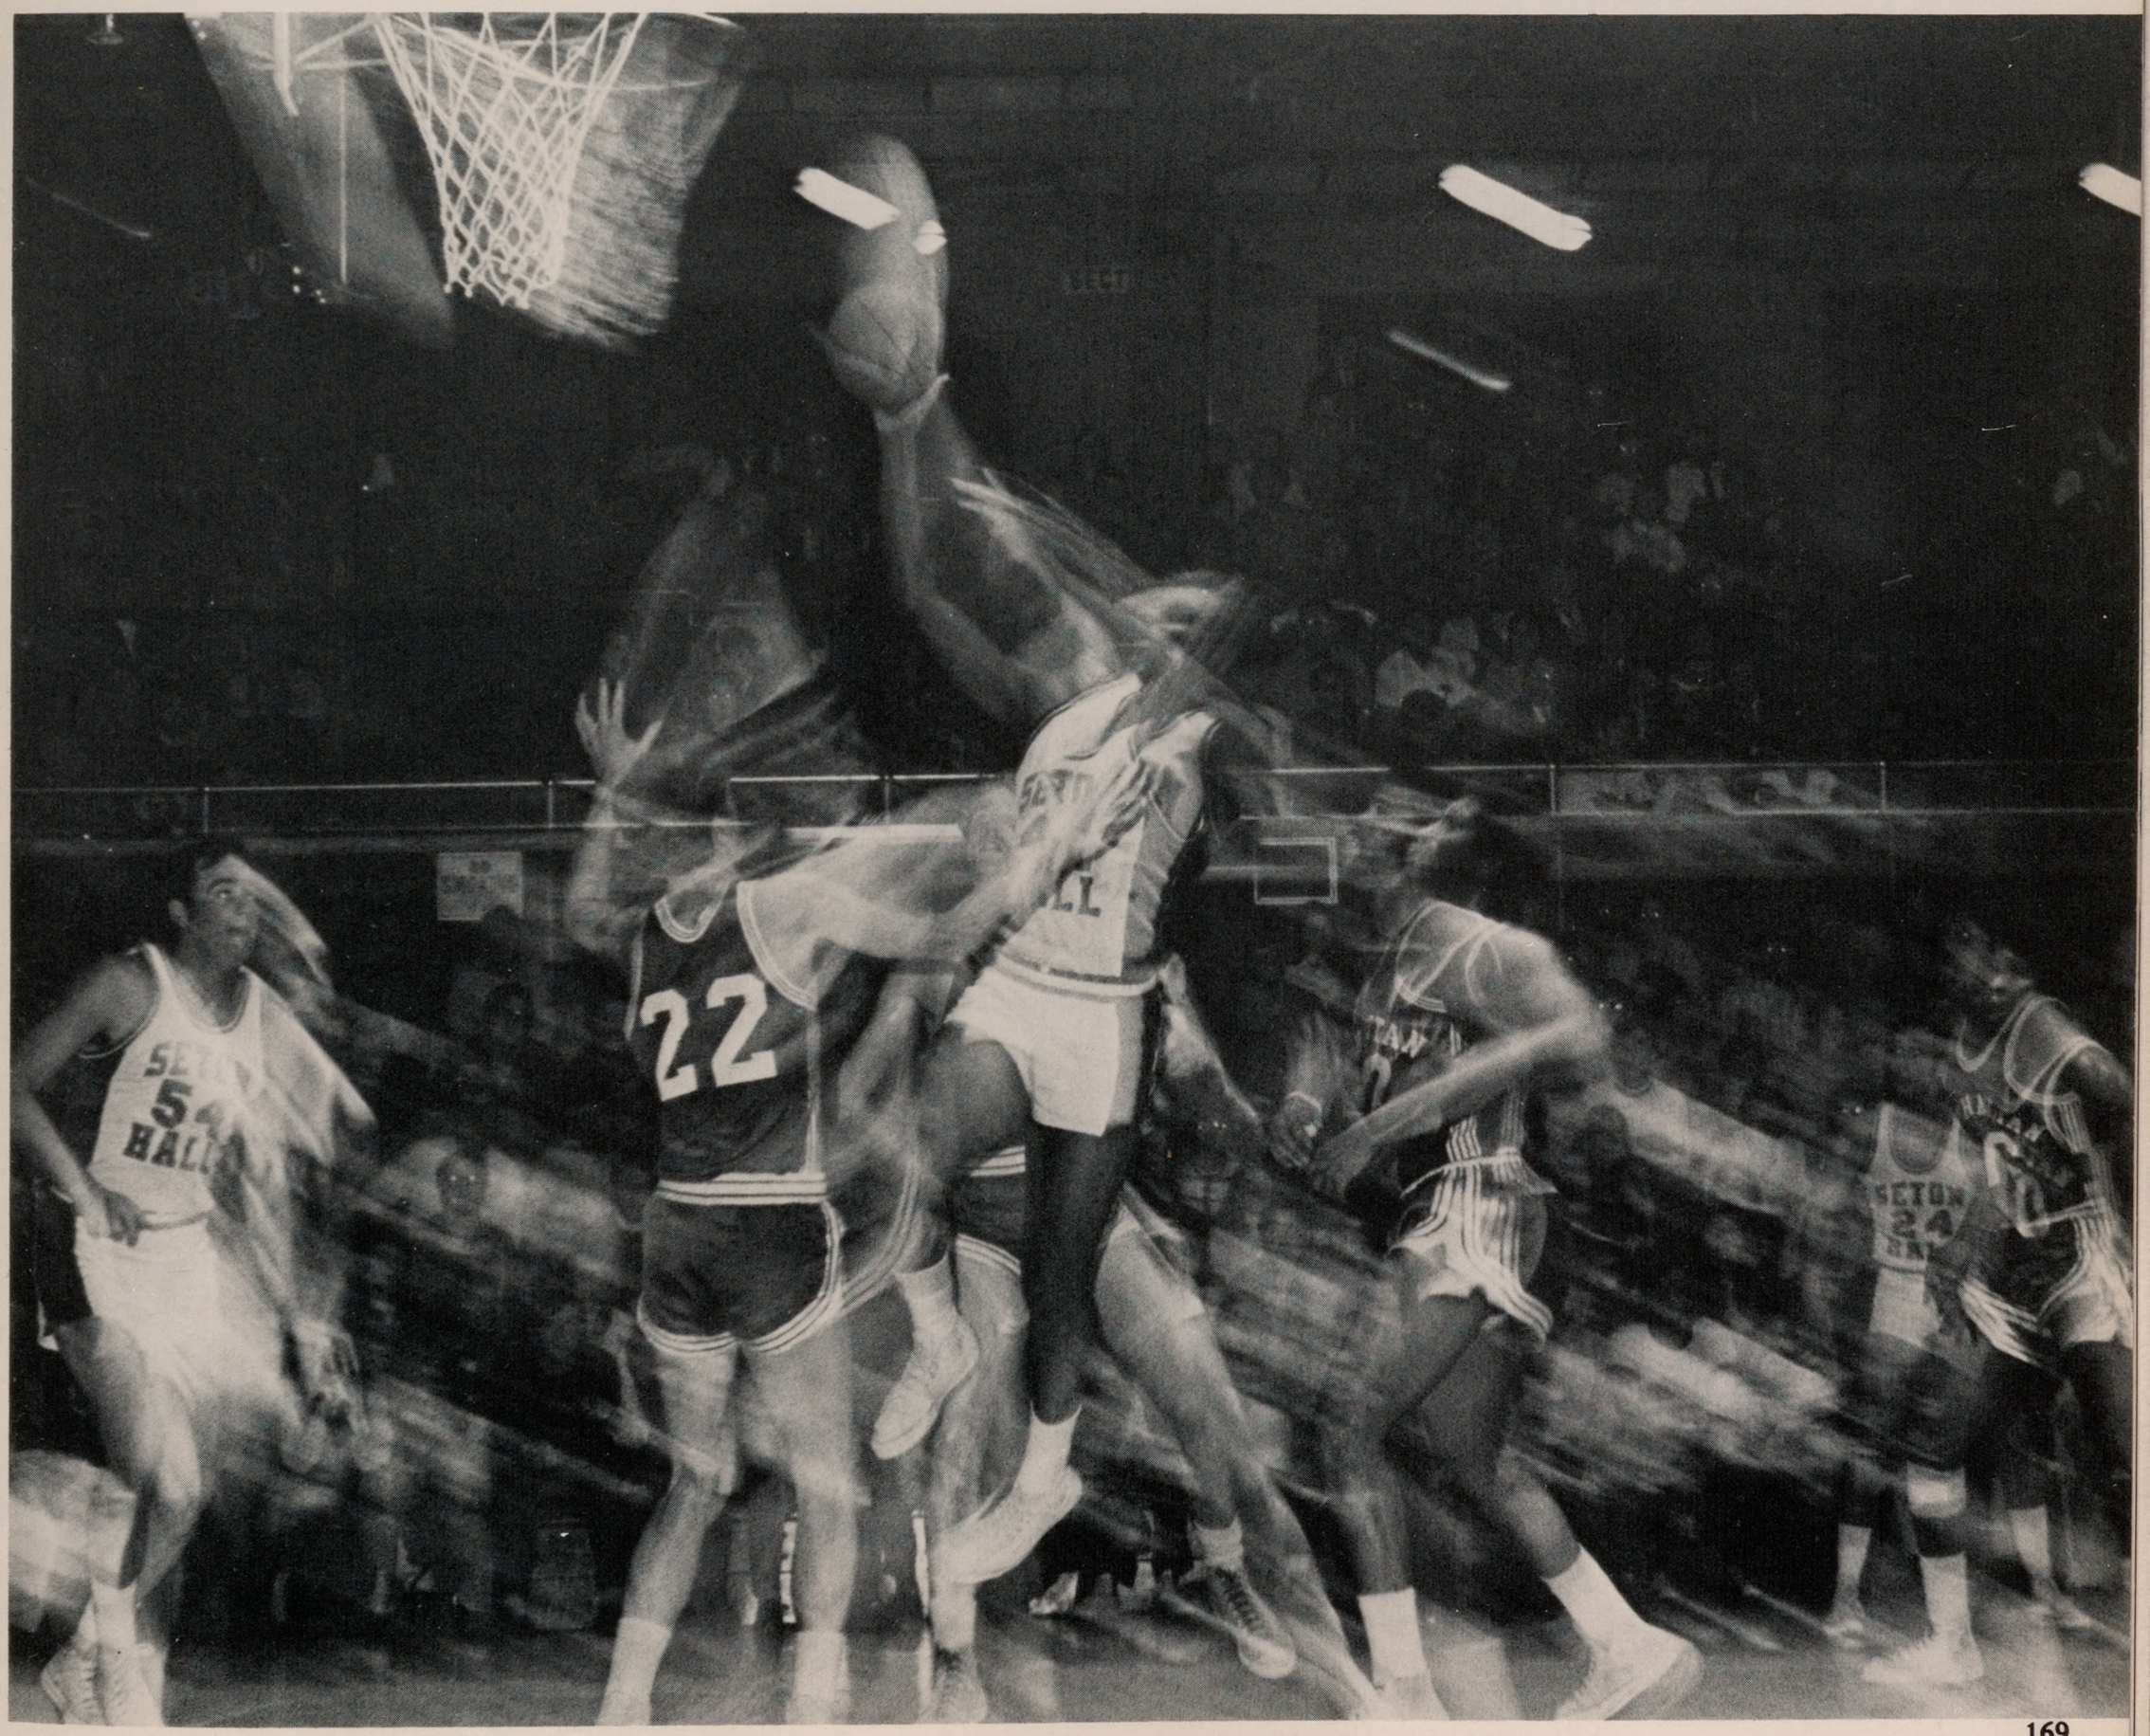

Next season promises to see Seton Hall back on the road to basketball success under Coach Raftery. But some deserving people will miss the fun. Knight, Cavallo and Bill McCrea have played their last game for the Hall. They deserved a winning season.

"I Can"

"Can't" is a word that is foe to ambition
An enemy ambush to shatter your will
Its prey is forever a man with a mission
And bows but to courage and patience and skill
So hate it with hatred that's deep and undying
For once it is welcomed 'twill break any man

So whatever the goal you are seeking, keep trying
And answer this demon by saying
"I Can."

TO THE SETON HALL COMMUNITY:

The Battle of Life

In the battle of life, it is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out where strong men stumbled, or how the doer of a deed could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, who's face is marred with sweat and blood, who strives valiantly yet errs and falls short of his mark time and time again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; who feels the great devotions and the great enthusiasms, who at his best knows the joy of victory and who at his worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly; so that his place shall never be among those cold and timid souls who have tasted neither victory nor defeat.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

FOR

NURSING STUDENTS

Did you know that if you are now a nursing student in an approved college program, you may be eligible for financial assistance for up to 24 months through the Army's Financial Assistance Program?

The Army will pay you a salary as well as your tuition while you complete your education. Upon graduation you will serve as an officer in the Army Nurse Corps for 24 or 36 months, depending on the amount of financial assistance you received.

The financial assistance is only a small part of what you will gain. The pride, prestige and vast experience you gain while serving as an Army Nurse can not be gained elsewhere in nursing.

CAN YOU QUALIFY?

". . . For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?

And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?"

—Kahlil Gibran

AN AFTERWORD

The year is over and somehow we managed to fill the pages of this book. After many, many late nights and much hard work, we've finally reached the end of the line.

The editor would like to thank Father O'Leary for rendering his invaluable assistance as moderator, Rich Morris for his pictures of Peter Nero and his advice in the early goings, and Mr. Keefe, the University Sports Information Director, for all his help. Special thanks are extended to Greg Riley and Jim Schmidt for their hundreds of pictures and for their long hours of darkroom work. Special thanks also go to Chris Brosnahan for his pictures of the Paterson campus. To my right hand, my freshman "whiz kid" layout editor, Bill Nourse, a special debt of gratitude is expressed. His knowledge, experience and patience were instrumental in the production of this book.

To Mr. Martin Arenson, our portrait photographer, and Mr. Thomas Everett from Rae Publishing Co. much appreciation is expressed for being two tremendous individuals to work with.

One final word of thanks goes to my editors, staff members and all those associated with the production of this book for making my tenure as editor of the GALLEON a very enjoyable and fulfilling experience.
